BOOK INTRODUCTION: BUSINESS ENGLISH FOR ELEMENTARY LEARNERS

Welcome to Business English for Elementary Learners, a comprehensive guide tailored to help you navigate the essential language skills required for professional communication in the business world. This book is designed for beginners who are stepping into the realm of Business English for the first time. Whether you are preparing for a job interview, drafting emails, or participating in basic workplace discussions, this book will equip you with the foundational tools you need to communicate effectively and confidently.

Key Features of This Book:

1. Practical Vocabulary: Learn essential business-related words and phrases that you can immediately apply in real-world situations.
2. Real-Life Scenarios: Each unit includes practical examples such as writing emails, participating in meetings, and making polite requests.
3. Interactive Exercises: Engage in exercises that test your understanding, improve your retention, and develop your skills step by step.
4. Audio Support: Listen to dialogues and practice pronunciation through downloadable audio materials.
5. Skill Development: Focus on the four core skills—listening, speaking, reading, and writing—to become a well-rounded communicator in the workplace.

By the end of this book, you will have developed a solid understanding of Business English at the elementary level, giving you the confidence to build your career or excel in your professional role.

How to Use This Book Effectively

To make the most out of your learning journey, follow these tips for improving your vocabulary, listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills.

Vocabulary

1. Use Flashcards: Create flashcards for new business terms and review them daily.

2. Contextual Learning: Study words in context. For example, when learning the word "invoice," read sample sentences or create your own to understand its usage.
3. Practice Daily: Incorporate new words into your daily conversations or write short sentences using them.
4. Word Lists: At the end of each unit, revisit the word lists and check your understanding.

Listening

1. Audio Practice: Use the audio materials provided with the book. Listen to each dialogue multiple times and try to repeat after the speaker.
2. Podcasts and Videos: Explore beginner-friendly business English podcasts or videos online to familiarize yourself with different accents and tones.
3. Shadowing Technique: Repeat what you hear in the audio recordings, mimicking the speaker's pronunciation and intonation.
4. Listening Log: Keep a log of what you listen to, noting down any new words or phrases.

Speaking

1. Role-Playing: Practice dialogues from the book with a partner or record yourself speaking and compare it to the audio.
2. Speak Aloud: Read texts or practice answering questions aloud to build fluency and confidence.
3. Join Conversations: Participate in online forums or join language exchange groups to engage in real-time conversations.
4. Pronunciation Apps: Use apps to practice and improve your pronunciation of business terms.

Reading

1. Skimming and Scanning: Practice skimming texts for general ideas and scanning for specific information.
2. Business Articles: Read simple business news articles or reports to expand your vocabulary and comprehension skills.

3. Highlight Key Points: Underline or highlight important terms and phrases in the texts you read.
4. Summarize: After reading a passage, summarize it in your own words to check understanding.

Writing

1. Email Practice: Write simple emails using the templates provided in the book. Pay attention to structure and tone.
2. Journal Writing: Keep a journal where you write short entries about your day or workplace scenarios using business vocabulary.
3. Peer Feedback: Share your written work with peers or teachers and ask for constructive feedback.
4. Edit and Revise: Review your writing for common errors and try to improve with each draft.

By dedicating consistent effort and following these strategies, you will not only master the basics of Business English but also gain the confidence to use it effectively in professional settings. Remember, progress comes with practice. Good luck on your journey to success in Business English!

1 Reading

Read the text about Bill Gates and put the correct heading above each paragraph.

BUSINESS CAREER CHARITY WORK PERSONAL LIFE

_____ 1

Bill Gates is an American business magnate. He is one of the richest people in the world. In 1975, he co-founded Microsoft, the world's largest PC software company. During his career, Gates has held the positions of chairman, CEO and chief software architect. He has invested in other businesses outside Microsoft, including Corbis, a digital media company. Gates has also written several books about business and technology.

_____ 2

Bill Gates married Melinda French on January 1, 1994. They have three children and live in a large house in the side of a hill in Washington, USA. The house took 7 years to build and cost $63.2 million.

_____ 3

During the later stages of his career, Gates became a philanthropist. In 2000, he established the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation with his wife Melinda. They have given large amounts of money to different charities and research organisations. In June 2006, Gates decided to work part-time for Microsoft in order to do full-time work at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

4. Where do you put petrol?
5. What do you do when you want to check the oil or the battery?
6. What is around each wheel of a car?

Transcripts

2. Listening

I usually go to work by car. It takes me about 45 minutes to get to work because of the traffic. When I arrive at the office, I don't usually have a problem parking the car because there is a company car park. But when the car park is full, I park in the street and it can take me 20 minutes to find a good place to leave my car. If it's a sunny day, I sometimes go to work by bicycle. It takes about 30 minutes to get to work by bike, and it's much healthier and more ecological. It's also possible to take the train but I never go by train. The train is uncomfortable – It's always crowded and because there's no air conditioning it's hot and sweaty. My country's railway system is also very unreliable – the trains are often late and sometimes they do not arrive at all! If I want to go by public transport, I take the bus. It's slow but it's more reliable than the train and more relaxing. I enjoy looking out of the window, reading a book or just listening to some music on my smartphone. I never go on foot because it takes too long and it's too tiring. And I hardly ever go by taxi because it's too expensive.

Key

1. Prepositions

2. about 3. at 4. by 5. on 6. out 7. on 8. by

5. _____

6. _____

Now match the adjectives to their opposites:

1. late
2. talkative
3. supportive
4. lazy
5. stressed
6. bossy

a. quiet
b. punctual
c. hardworking
d. easygoing
e. relaxed
f. unhelpful

2 Describe the people below

Look at the sentences. Describe each person like in the example.

1. Paul often gets to work 10 minutes after his colleagues and he never works! He is late and lazy.
2. Andrea doesn't like talking and she is never stressed.
3. Arnold likes controlling his employees, and he can never relax.

6. Kristina is never late. She often works in the evening and at weekends.
7. Omar hardly ever has time for his family. He is always in the office and he needs to relax more.
8. Heidi is never stressed but she loves talking about her life. Her colleagues don't always want to listen to her.

3 Describe your colleagues

Work in pairs. Student A, describe one of your colleagues using words from this lesson, but don't say the name of the person. Student B, try to guess the colleague.

Use adverbs of frequency (always, usually, often, sometimes, rarely, hardly ever, never) and 'very', 'a little':

Example: "He is usually very relaxed and easygoing, but he is sometimes a little bossy."

4 Describe yourself (alternative activity)

Work in pairs. Describe yourself to your partner using all the words from this lesson.

Use adverbs of frequency (always, usually, often, sometimes, rarely, hardly ever, never) and 'very', 'a little':

Example: "I am usually hardworking, but I am never stressed."

Key

1. Character traits

With a very weak class, go through each picture and read out the sentence that match, e.g. 'He is lazy'. Students repeat and write down the answer. With a stronger class, have the students complete the task in pairs using a dictionary if necessary or provide the translations first.

1. lazy 2. bossy 3. stressed 4. talkative 5. supportive 6. late

1. b
2. a
3. f
4. c
5. e
6. d

2. Describe the people below

The exercise can be done in pairs or individually around a small class. Go through the answers.

2. She is quiet and relaxed.
3. He is bossy and stressed.
4. She is supportive and easygoing.
5. He is lazy and unhelpful.
6. She is punctual and hardworking.
7. He is hardworking and stressed.
8. She is relaxed and talkative.

3. Describe your colleagues

If you feel that you do not have a good-natured enough class, or if your students do not have any mutual colleagues, skip this activity and do the next exercise. In a one-to-one lesson, you can ask the student to describe his/her colleagues or employees.

4. Describe yourself (alternative activity)

If possible, try to pair up students who work together and ask them if they agree with their partners.

1 Reading

Patrick and Michael work for the British branch of a Spanish company. Read their conversation below.

Patrick: Michael, I'm going to visit our head office in Madrid next week.

Michael: Oh, lucky you!

Patrick: Have you been there?

Michael: No, I haven't. I haven't been to our head office.

Patrick: Really? Have you been to Spain?

Michael: Yes, I have. I went to Barcelona last summer. It was lovely. Why are you going?

Patrick: Well, I'm going to attend an important meeting to discuss our new marketing strategy.

Michael: It sounds interesting. I would like to go. I enjoy business trips. I went to Berlin last month to visit one of our clients. Have you been to Berlin?

Patrick: No, I haven't. Not yet.

Michael: How long are you going to stay in Madrid?

Patrick: About 3 days. It's not enough time for sightseeing. But the weather is going to be fantastic. Have you been to a hot country before?

Michael: Yes, I have. I've been to Dubai. It was boiling there.

Patrick: Dubai? Wow, I haven't been there. And have you been to a very cold country?

Michael: Yes, I have. I've been to Iceland.

Patrick: My manager has been to Iceland. He went there last year. He said it was freezing.

Michael: Yes, I agree! So, who are you going to travel with?

Patrick: A few colleagues from my department. We are very excited about the new marketing strategy.

Find a word which means ...

1. very nice _____
2. very cold _____
3. very hot _____
4. earlier than today _____
5. happy, enthusiastic and interested _____

2 Present perfect of 'be'

Study the sentences, answer the questions and look at the table below.

A: I went to Barcelona last summer. B: I've been to Iceland.

1. Does Michael say when he went to Barcelona? yes / no
2. Does Michael say when he went to Iceland? yes / no
3. What is the full form of I've?
4. What is the present form of I've been?

Present perfect of 'be'

affirmative forms	negative forms	questions
I've (I have) been	I haven't (have not) been	Have I been ...?
You've (You have) been	You haven't (have not) been	Have you been ...?
He/she/it's (He/she/it has) been	He/she/it hasn't (has not) been	Has he/she/it been ...?
We've (We have) been	We haven't (have not) been	Have we been ...?
You've (You have) been	You haven't (have not) been	Have you been ...?
They've (They have) been	They haven't (have not) been	Have they been ...?

Short answers

Yes, I have. / Yes, you have. / Yes, he has ...
No, I haven't. / No, you haven't. / No, he hasn't ...

- We use the present perfect to talk about our experiences (things that happened to us in the past), but we do not say when they happened.
- We make the present perfect of be with have/has + been.
- been is called the past participle. Every verb has a past participle form.

3 Practice

Make sentences with the present perfect of 'be' ((X) – make negative sentences).

1. Carl / Spain Carl has been to Spain
2. you / Ireland ? _____
3. I / Germany (X) _____
4. They / Japan _____
5. John / Singapore ? _____
6. Daniel / Australia (X) _____
7. We / Poland _____

4 Complete the dialogue

Now complete the dialogue from Exercise 1 with the present perfect of 'be'.

Patrick: Michael, I'm going to visit our head office in Madrid next week.

Michael: Oh, lucky you!

Patrick: _____[1] there?

Michael: No, _____[2]. _____[3] to our head office.

Patrick: Really? _____[4] to Spain?

Michael: Yes, _____[5]. I went to Barcelona last summer. It was lovely. Why are you going?

Patrick: Well, I'm going to attend an important meeting to discuss our new marketing strategy.

1. Reading

1. lovely
2. freezing
3. boiling
4. before
5. excited

2. Present perfect of 'be'

This exercise introduces the students to the present perfect form of the very 'be'. The concept of the present perfect will be unfamiliar to many elementary students, especially if a similar tense does not exist in the learner's native language. Students need to understand that the present perfect is used to talk about a past experience without saying when the event took place. Draw attention to the table and the points below. Point out that 'I've been to ..' means that you went somewhere and came back. With a stronger class you could compare the structure with the present perfect of 'go' ('I've gone to ...'), which means that you went somewhere and didn't come back.

1. yes
2. no
3. I have
4. I am

3. Practice

2. Have you been to Ireland?
3. I haven't been to Germany.
4. They have been to Japan.
5. Has John been to Singapore?
6. Daniel hasn't been to Australia.

4. Complete the dialogue

1. Have you been
2. I haven't
3. I haven't been
4. Have you been
5. I have
6. Have you been
7. I haven't
8. Have you been
9. I've been
10. I haven't been
11. have you been
12. I have
13. I've been
14. has been

A: I'm [name] from [company]. How do you do?

B: Pleased to meet you.

A: Welcome to our company!

B: Thank you.

A: Where _____ from?

B: _____ from [country or city]. And you?

A: _____ from [country or city]. Who _____ here with?

B: I'm with my boss. He _____ here at the moment. He's in the conference room.

B: [name], this _____ [name]. [name] is our [job title].

A: Nice to meet you, [name].

C: Nice to meet you, too.

Practise the conversation. Use your real names, positions and countries or cities.

Key

1. Warm-up

Demonstrate with your own name. Have the students introduce themselves to each other in this way.

2. Welcome to our company!

Students can work individually and check in pairs or you can do it together with the class.

1. What's your name?
2. Where are you from?
3. Who are you with?
4. this is
5. Nice to meet you, too.

Go through the questions on the left and point out the difference between 'How do you do?' and 'How are you?'. Make sure that students understand that 'How do you do?' is a greeting, not a real question, and is more formal than 'Nice to meet you' or 'Please to meet you.'

1. a
2. c
3. b

3. Verb 'be'

This exercises covers the first, second and third person forms of the verb 'be'. Students can find the answers on page 1. Go through the answers with the class. Tell the students they are going to practise the conversation below the table. But first have them fill in the gaps individually and check in pairs. Put the students into groups of three and have them read the conversation three times, changing roles each time. Alternatively, practise the conversation round the class, repeating with Student B as Student A. Students can also read the conversation in pairs, inventing a name and position for Student C and ignoring the last line. Students should try to read the lines without looking at the text.

2. You're
3. He /she/it's
4. He/she/it isn't
5. Are you
6. I'm not
7. you aren't

1. are you
2. I'm not
3. are you
4. I'm
5. I'm
6. are you
7. isn't
8. is

MAKING APPOINTMENTS

1 Warm up

Read the information from Laila.

Hi, I'm Laila. This week, I have a meeting at 3.30 in the afternoon on Wednesday. Do you have any meetings this week?

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
morning	meeting 11.00
afternoon				meeting 4.00

Work in pairs and tell Laila when you have meetings this week.

1. Yes, I have a meeting at _____[1] in _____[2] on _____[3].
2. I also have a meeting at _____[4] in _____[5] on _____[6].

2 Prepositions of time

Look at this table. Use it to help you underline the correct answer in the phrases.

We use ...	to talk about ...	example
in	periods of time	in the afternoon, in June, in 2022
at	precise time	at 2.30, at midnight on	days and dates	on Tuesday, on 1st May

1. in/at/on Saturday
2. in/at/on midday
3. in/at/on the evening
4. in/at/on 9 am
5. in/at/on the Winter
6. in/at/on New Year's Day
7. in/at/on 2025
8. in/at/on 5.30

3 Listening

Listen to Ann and Paulo and answer the questions:

1. When does Ann want to meet?
2. Can Paulo meet on Monday?
3. When do they finally agree to meet?

4 Practice

Part A: Look at the conversation between Ann and Paulo. Write in, at or on in the correct place.

Ann: Hi Paulo, I'd like to meet with you to talk about the presentation _____[1] the 22nd February, if that is possible?

Paulo: No problem. When are you free?

Ann: I'm available _____[2] 2pm _____[3] Monday.

Paulo: I'm sorry, I'm busy then. How about Tuesday _____[4] the morning?

Ann: No, my department meeting is scheduled for Tuesday mornings _____[5] February.

Paulo: Can we get together _____[6] midday _____[7] Wednesday?

Ann: Wednesday and Thursday are out, I'm afraid. I have meetings at head office on those days. That leaves Friday?

Paulo: Hmmm. I'm busy _____[8] the morning. But I'm free _____[9] the afternoon?

Ann: 2.30? My office?

Paulo: Perfect! I will see you _____[10] 2.30 _____[11] the afternoon _____[12] Friday!

Part B: Work in pairs. Look at conversation in Part A and answer these questions.

What is another way of saying "Can we meet ..."?

1. _____

What is another way of saying "I'm free"?

2. _____

What is another way of saying "I'm sorry"?

3. _____

What is another way of saying, "I can't meet on Monday and Tuesday" ?

4. _____

What is another way of saying, "Can we meet on the 4th August" ?

5. _____

What is another way of saying, "I have a meeting at 2pm" ?

6. _____

5 Pronunciation

When we speak, words are divided into syllables.

When a word has two or more syllables, one of them is stressed. This means that one of them is said a little louder and a little slower.
For example:

> Monday (two syllables): Mon- day

With the word Monday, the 1st syllable is stressed.
Look at the following words. Underline the syllable that is stressed.

1. morning: mor-ning
2. afternoon: af-ter-noon
3. evening: eve-ning
4. department: de-part-ment
5. midday: mid-day
6. midnight: mid-night
7. meeting: mee-ting
8. possible: pos-si-ble

6 Making appointments

Your teacher will give you a schedule. In pairs or groups of three, arrange a meeting for 1 hour. Don't let the other person/people see your schedule. Practice using the phrases that you have learned in this lesson to arrange your meeting. Don't forget your syllable stress!

Person A

day	morning	afternoon
Monday	department meeting 10.00 - 11.30	meeting 2.00 - 4.30
Tuesday	head office all day	head office
Wednesday	head office all day	head office
Thursday		leave 2pm - Doctor's appointment
Friday	meeting 9.30 - 11.30

Person B

day	morning	afternoon
Monday		department meeting 1:00-3.30pm
Tuesday
Wednesday	training all day	training all day
Thursday	training all day	training all day
Friday	meeting 10.30-12:30	leave early - 3pm dentist

Person C

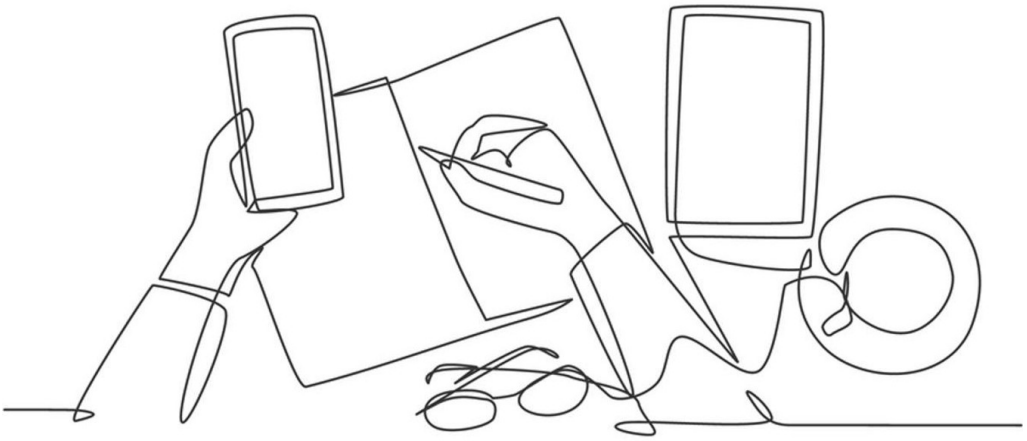

day	morning	afternoon
Monday	department meeting 10.30-12.30
Tuesday	working from home all day	working from home all day
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday	meeting 11.00-1.00

7 Extra practice

Write the phrases from the box in the correct column in the table.

winter	6 am	the evening	Friday	lunchtime
the school holidays	the end of the day	the meeting	Saturday	1 pm

IN	AT	ON

8 Optional extension

Fill in the missing prepositions.

1. What time do you usually get up _____ the weekends?
2. Do you always eat lunch _____ noon?
3. Is your birthday _____ June? If "no", when is your birthday?
4. Do you ever go to meetings _____ Saturdays?
5. Do you ever work late _____night?
6. Do you ever go skiing _____ winter?
7. Do you ever get up _____ sunrise?
8. When was the last time you got up _____ 10 am?

Now work in pairs and answer these questions.

Transcripts

3. Listening

Ann: Hi Paulo, I'd like to meet with you to talk about the presentation on the 22nd February, if that is possible?

Paulo: No problem. When are you free?

Ann: I'm available at 2 pm on Monday?

Paulo: I'm sorry, I'm busy then. How about Tuesday in the morning?

Ann: No, my department meeting is scheduled for Tuesday mornings in February.

Paulo: Can we get together at midday on Wednesday?

Ann: Wednesday and Thursday are out, I'm afraid. I have meetings at head office on those days. That leaves Friday?

Paulo: Hmmm. I'm busy in the morning. But I'm free in the afternoon?

Ann: 2.30? My office?

Paulo: Perfect! I will see you at 2.30 in the afternoon on Friday!

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This is intended to be short as we want to introduce the students to the idea of using prepositions before formally introducing them. Ask some students to model their replies. You may want to ask students if they know why we use at for the time, in for the afternoon and on for Wednesday. This can lead you into the next segment.

1. 11 o' clock/AM
2. the morning
3. Monday
4. 4 o' clock/PM
5. the afternoon
6. Thursday

2. Prepositions of time

10 mins.

Prepositions of time. Explain to the students that we use in, at and on for many things, but one of them is to talk about time which they will be doing today.

You may want to give the English lesson as an example of a period of time to use with in. For example, they learn English in the lesson. Then use the starting and finishing times to explain at. For example, the lesson starts at 2.30. The lesson finishes at 4.00. Then use the day the lesson is scheduled to demonstrate on. For example, the lesson is on Tuesday and Thursday.

You may want to point out that midday and midnight are English expressions for 12pm and 12am respectively.

Ask the students to complete the time phrases by underlining the correct preposition.

1. on
2. at
3. in
4. at
5. in
6. on
7. in
8. at

3. Listening

5 mins.

Ask the students to listen to the dialogue and answer the questions. Play the audio again if needed.

1. At 2 pm on Monday.
2. No, Paulo can't meet on Monday.
3. They finally agree to meet on Friday at 2.30 in the afternoon.

4. Practice

10 mins.

Put the students in pairs or small groups and ask them to read the dialogue together and fill in the missing prepositions. Ask them to refer back to the table at the beginning if they get stuck.

You may want to elicit meanings of presentation, department and schedule/scheduled before starting.

When they have finished, ask them to listen to the recording to check their answers and to do a role-play.

Part A:

1. on	2. at	3. on	4. in	5. in	6. at
7. on	8. in	9. in	10. at	11. in	12. on

Part B:

1. Can we get together...?
2. I'm available.
3. I'm afraid.
4. Monday and Tuesday are out.
5. I'd like to meet on the 4th August, if that is possible?
6. My meeting is scheduled for 2pm.

5. Pronunciation

10 mins.

Introduce the students to the idea of syllables. As a starting point, ask them to divide their own names into syllables. Assuming their names are more than one syllable, ask them to identify it. It's worth misidentifying the stress so that they can hear how it sounds. For example, try pronouncing Alice (or a name of your choice), as AL-ice, then al-ICE to contrast the difference in stress. Once they have done this, then put them in pairs ask them to complete the exercise with words from the dialogue and identify the stressed syllable. Encourage them to say the words and play with the stress.

Confirm the answers when they have finished. When they have done this, ask them to practice the conversation and pay attention to the stress of the words. Model it for them if needed.

1. mor
2. noon
3. eve
4. part
5. day
6. mid
7. mee
8. pos

6. Making appointments

10 - 15 mins.

Put the students into pairs or threes and give them each a schedule. If possible/desirable, you may want to get the students to do this over the phone to each other and allow them to go to different places. Or you may wish to have half of the class leave the room and call the other half in the classroom.

Make sure everyone is happy to use their phones and share their phone numbers if this is the case.

Tell the students that they are going to have a conversation a lot like the one they read and they have to find a suitable day and time to meet each other using their schedules to help. Underline that it is important that the students do not show one another their schedules. They must arrive at a meeting time by discussing it only, not by comparing schedules.

You may want to extend this activity by asking the students to write down their conversation and perform the finished conversation for the class.

7. Extra practice

5 mins.

As extra reinforcement of the prepositions activity, ask the students to complete the table by putting the phrases from the box in the correct column.

1. IN: the school holidays, the meeting, winter, the evening
2. AT: the end of the day, lunchtime, 6 am, 1 pm
3. ON: Friday, Saturday

8. Optional extension

5 mins.

Ask students to use what they have learnt from the lesson. Monitor the task and elicit correct answers. Ask them to work in pairs to answer the questions.

1. at	2. at	3. in	4. on
5. at	6. in	7. at	8. at

1 Countries and nationalities

Listen and repeat. Underline the stressed syllable.

Country/Nation	Nationality
Britain	British
the United States	American
China	Chinese
Germany	German
Italy	Italian
Spain	Spanish
France	French
Greece	Greek
Poland	Polish
Ireland	Irish
Switzerland	Swiss
Russia	Russian
Portugal	Portuguese
India	Indian

2 Where are you from?

Study the dialogue below.

A: Where are you from?

B: I'm Russian. I'm from Moscow.

Practise this dialogue with other students. Use your real nationality and home town.

3 Is it British?

Study the dialogues below:

A: Is Bill Gates Spanish?

B: No, he isn't. He's American

A: Is Guinness from Portugal?

B: No, it isn't. It's from Ireland.

A: Are pizza and pasta from Poland?

B: No, they aren't. They are from Italy.

Work in pairs. Practise a similar dialogue for each brand below:

from China?

from Spain?

Greek?

Japanese?

from Brazil?

Irish?

British?

from Korea?

French?

from Malaysia?

4 Verb 'be'

Look at the table below.

affirmative forms	negative forms	questions
I am (I'm)	I am not (I'm not)	Am I?
You are (You're)	You are not (You aren't)	Are you?
He/she/it is (He's/she's/it's)	He/she/it is not (He/she/it isn't)	Is he/she/it?
We are (We're)	We are not (We aren't)	Are we?
You are (You're)	You are not (You aren't)	Are you?
They are (They're)	They are not (They aren't)	Are they?

Short answers

Yes, I am. / Yes, you are. / Yes, he is ...

No, I'm not. / No, you aren't. / No he isn't ...

Key

1. Countries and nationalities

Read out the nations and nationalities. Have the students repeat, underlining the stressed syllable. It might be a good idea to bring a map into the classroom.

2. Where are you from?

Draw the students' attention to the dialogue, then demonstrate with one of the students, using the student's real nationality and home town/city or nation. Have the students continue the activity around the class. Practise asking questions with 'he' and 'she', e.g. 'Maria, where is Tomek from?' 'He's Polish. He's from Warsaw.'

If you are teaching one-to-one, ask 'he/she' questions with the names of famous people, e.g. 'Where is Barrack Obama from?'. Alternatively, bring some photos of celebrities or famous business people to the lesson and ask 'Where is he/she from?'

3. Is it British?

In this exercise, students review positive, negative and short answer forms of the verb 'be'. Weak students can use the table in Ex4 to help them. Demonstrate the first dialogue with a strong student and monitor the activity. Answers:

A: Is Apple from China? B: No, it isn't. It's from the United States.

A: Is BMW from Spain? B: No, it isn't. It's from Germany.

A: Is Guinness Greek? B: No, it isn't. It's Irish.

A: Is Ikea Japanese? B: No, it isn't. It's Swedish.

A: Is Rolex from Brazil? B: No, it isn't. It's from Switzerland.

A: Is Samsung Irish? B: No, it isn't. It's Korean.

A: Is Toyota British? B: No, it isn't. It's Japanese.

A: Is Huawei from Korea? B: No, it isn't. It's from China.

A: Is Coca Cola French? B: No, it isn't. It's American.

A: Is Armani from Russia? B: No, it isn't. It's from Italy.

A: Is Renault Swiss? B: No, it isn't. It's French.

A: Is Sony from Malaysia? B: No, it isn't. It's from Japan.

4. Verb 'be'

Go through the present forms of the verb 'be' with a weak class. Stronger students should cover up the table during Ex3.

Study the words below.

a calculator	a file	a folder	a keyboard	a mouse	a mouse mat
a notepad	a pen	a pencil	a pencil	a photo	a plant
a screen	a telephone	paper	paper clips	plastic racks	post-it notes

Now look at the picture below for about a minute:

Do the exercise on the next page.

2 There was / were

What do you remember? Without looking at page 1, complete the sentences below with 'there was/were/wasn't/weren't' with 'a/an', 'some' and 'any'.

1. There was a calculator.
2. _____ telephone.
3. _____ paper clips.
4. _____ keyboard.
5. _____ plastic racks.
6. _____ lamp.
7. _____ pencil.
8. _____ post-it notes.
9. _____ pens.
10. _____ paper.

Compare with a partner. Look and the picture and check your answers.

Now look at the conversation about the desk on page 1:

A: Do you have a keyboard on your desk?

B: Yes, I do.

A: Are there any pens

B: No, there aren't. But there's a pencil.

A: What else do you have on your desk?

B: I have a notepad and a few paper clips.

Have a similar conversation with your partner about your desk. Use 'some', 'any', 'a few', 'a lot of', 'a little'.

Now read the article on the next page. Which personality are you?

What does your desk say about you?

A desk is not only a place to sit and do work. It says something about your personality.

Do you have any photos of your holiday on your desk? Be careful. If there are a lot of holiday photos, it shows that you prefer to be somewhere else. You are thinking about the beach, not tomorrow's marketing presentation!

The technophobe
Are there any post-it notes on your desk? If you have post-it notes all over your desk, it shows that you have a problem with technology. If you want to be organized, use your computer.

The rebel
Is your desk empty? If there is nothing on your desk, it shows that you are not yet comfortable in your new company or maybe you are looking for another job.

The homesick person
Are there many family photos on your desk? It is fine to have a few photos of your family. But if you have a lot of photos, it shows that you want to be at home, not at work.

The workaholic
How many empty coffee cups and energy drinks do you have on your desk? If you have a lot, it shows that you do not have much balance in your life. You spend a lot of time in the office and you need a hobby.

The chatterbox
Do you always have a box of chocolates on your desk? Office workers with a never-ending supply of chocolates and sweets are often popular with their colleagues. But it can also show that you like talking all the time.

1 Vocabulary

Put the expressions below each picture.

drive to work
smoke
park in front of the office
wear a hard hat
play computer games
wear casual clothes

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

Work in pairs. Ask and answer questions about the above activities. Make questions with 'Do you ...?', 'How often ...?' and 'Do you like ...?'.

2 First day at work

It's Brett's first day at work. Listen to his manager explaining the workplace rules and put a tick (✓) or cross (✗) next to each rule below.

Audio

1. park in front of the office
2. enter the factory without a hard hat
3. smoke in the car park
4. play computer games
5. use Facebook
6. come to work late
7. work on Saturdays and Sundays

Now complete the sentences below with 'can' or 'can't':

1. You _____ park in front of the office.
2. You _____ enter the factory without a hard hat.
3. You _____ smoke in the car park.
4. You _____ play computer games at work.
5. You _____ use Facebook at work.
6. You _____ come to work late.
7. You _____ work on Saturdays and Sundays.

Do you think the rules of this workplace are fair or unfair? Why?

3 Asking about rules

If we want to ask about rules, we can use questions with 'Can you ...?' Form questions like in the example. For questions 8 and 9, use your own ideas to make questions about your own workplace.

1. smoke / car park ? Can you smoke in the car park?
2. park / where you want ? .....
3. wear / jeans / at work ? .....
4. come to work / late ? .....
5. take / coffee breaks? .....
6. drink alcohol / work ? .....
7. use Facebook / work ? .....
8. .....?
9. .....?

4 Role play

Work in pairs. Take turns to ask and answer each question from Ex 3 about your partner's workplace.

Transcripts

2. First day at work

OK, let me explain the rules. Firstly, if you drive to work, you can't park in front of the office. That space is for the director. Over there is the factory. You can enter the factory only with a hard hat. This is for your safety. In the office building, you can't smoke. If you want to smoke, you can go outside in the car park. You can't play computer games at work and you can't use Facebook. You can't wear casual clothes, but you can wear jeans on Fridays. Your working hours are flexible. This means that you can come to work late and go home late. But you can't work on Saturdays or Sundays because the office is closed.

Key

1. Vocabulary

1. wear casual clothes
2. smoke
3. wear a hard hat
4. play computer games
5. park in front of the office
6. drive to work

If you have been following our English for Work and Life course plan, use this activity to review adverbs of frequency and also like/don't like + -ing. These were covered in previous lessons. Demonstrate with a strong student, e.g. 'Do you drive to work?' / 'How often?'/ 'Do you like driving to work?'

2. First day at work

Play the audio file or scan the QR code with your mobile device. Students put ticks next to the activities that are allowed and crosses next to the activities that are prohibited. Students can work individually and check in pairs. Go through the answers.

1. ✗ 2. ✗ 3. ✓ 4. ✗ 5. ✗ 6. ✓ 7. ✗

Point out that 'can'/'can't' is used to talk about permission as well as ability, which students who are following our English for Work and Life course plan would have learned in the previous lesson. Students can work individually and check in pairs. You can play the recording again to confirm answers.

1. can't 2. can't 3. can 4. can't 5. can't 6. can 7. can't

Explain the meaning of 'fair' and 'unfair'. Ask students to justify their opinion using 'can' or 'can't'.

3. Asking about rules

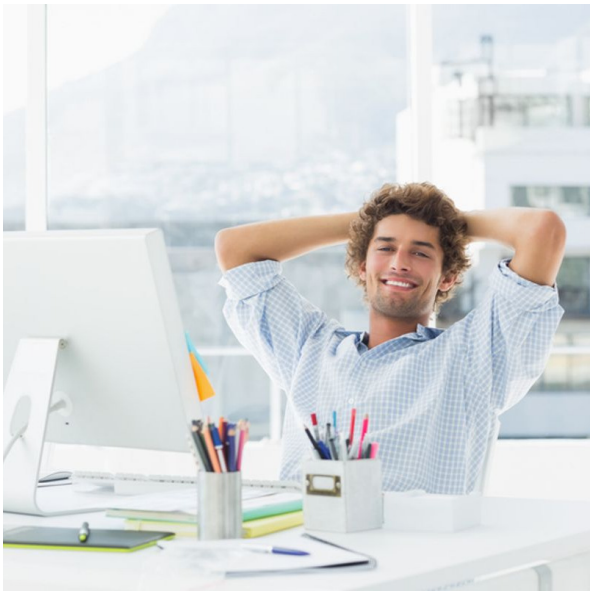

It is important that the students understand the meaning of 'you' in the question 'Can you ...?'. Explain that 'you' has an impersonal meaning here. The speaker is not referring to the listener. Students work individually. Monitor the activity and be prepared to help students create questions using their own ideas (the questions should relate to the students' own workplaces).

2. Can you park where you want?
3. Can you wear jeans at work?
4. Can you come to work late?
5. Can you take coffee breaks?
6. Can you drink alcohol at work?
7. Can you use Facebook at work?

4. Role play

In the role play activity, students can use short answers, e.g. 'Yes, you can.'/ 'No, you can't.' Demonstrate with a strong student. For questions 8, 9 and 10: if the paired-up students do not work in the same workplace, have them swap page 3 of the handout and ask each other the questions that their partners wrote down.

'Do you make phone calls in your job?'

2 Free time

Look at the activities below. Write the correct activity under each picture on the next page.

cook | go jogging | go shopping | go skiing | go to the gym | meet friends | read | watch TV

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

3 What do you do in your free time?

Richard and Julie work for the same company, but they have very different lifestyles! Read their conversation below.

Richard

Julie

Julie: So, what do you do in your free time?

Richard: Well, I often watch TV in the evening. What about you?

Julie: I go jogging, and I sometimes meet friends in the evening.

Richard: How often do you go jogging?

Julie: I go jogging every morning. And you?

Richard: I hardly ever go jogging. Maybe once a year!

Julie: Do you cook?

Richard: No, I never cook. I always order pizza. And you?

Julie: I cook every day. I love cooking!

Richard: How often do you travel?

Julie: I travel twice a year. In winter, I usually go skiing. Do you travel?

Richard: Yes, I do. Every summer. But I rarely travel in winter.

Write the words in bold in the chart:

never →_____ →_____ → sometimes →_____ →_____ → always 0% 100%

4 Adverbs of frequency

Look at the rules for using adverbs of frequency.

- Use adverbs of frequency (always, usually, often, rarely, etc.) to answer the question How often ...?
- Adverbs of frequency go before all verbs (except be), for example

  I always go shopping on Sundays.
- Adverbs of frequency go after the verb be, for example

  I am never late for work.

Look at the sentences below. Add an adverb of frequency to make them true for you. Compare with a partner. Example:

I read in the morning –> I hardly ever read in the morning.

1. I read a newspaper in the morning.
2. I go skiing in winter.
3. I meet friends in the evening.
4. I talk to clients at work.
5. I am late for my English lessons.
6. I write emails in the morning.
7. I am hungry in the evening.

5 Once/twice/three times a ...

Answer the questions about Richard and Julie:

1. How often does Julie go jogging?
2. How often does Richard go jogging?
3. How often does Julie travel?

Now answer the questions about you using 'once/twice/three times a ...', 'every ...' or 'never'.

1. How often do you make business trips? .....
2. How often do you read a book? .....
3. How often do you attend meetings? .....
4. How often do you send faxes? .....
5. How often do you travel? .....
6. How often do you drink coffee? .....

6 How healthy are you?

Work in pairs. Interview your partner.

1. How often do you cook?
   a. Hardly ever . . . 1 b. Sometimes . . . 2 c. Often . . . . . 3 d. Every day 4
2. How often do you go jogging?
   a. Never . . . . . 1 b. Rarely . . . . . 2 c. Sometimes . . . 3 d. Often 4
3. Do you smoke?
   a. Yes . . . . . 1 b. Sometimes . . . 2 c. Rarely . . . . . 3 d. No 4
4. How often are you stressed?
   a. Always . . . . . 1 b. Often . . . . . 2 c. Sometimes . . . 3 d. Never 4
5. How often do you watch TV?
   a. Every day . . . . 1 b. Often . . . . . 2 c. Sometimes . . . 3 d. Never 4
6. Do you go to the gym?
   a. Never . . . . . 1 b. Rarely . . . . . 2 c. Sometimes . . . 3 d. Often 4

Add the scores together and compare with the key:
Your lifestyle is ...
22-24..... very healthy
18-22 ..... healthy
13-17..... OK
6-12..... not very healthy

Key

1. At work

Go through the different tasks, checking and explaining meaning. Translate or check understanding of 'deal with'(correspond with, talk to etc. as part of your job). Students tick the tasks that they do in their work and then ask questions in the present simple. Discourage 'Yes' or 'No' answers. With a weaker class, students can give short answers, e.g. 'Yes, I do'/'No, I don't'. With a stronger class, encourage further questions, e.g. 'Who do you call?', 'What do you talk about?', 'Who do you talk to?', 'Where do you go/travel?', etc. However, discourage questions with 'How often ....?'. This structure will be covered in the next few exercises.

2. Free time

Students can work alone and check in pairs or work in pairs. Go through the answers with the class. Model pronunciation.

1. watch TV
2. go jogging
3. go shopping
4. meet friends
5. go to the gym
6. read
7. go skiing
8. cook

3. What do you do in your free time?

Students read the dialogue in pairs. Encourage correct pronunciation and intonation. After they have finished you can ask which activities Richard and Julie do from Exercise 2.

never –> hardly ever –> rarely –> sometimes –> often –> usually –> always

4. Adverbs of frequency

Students work individually and compare with a partner. When they have finished ask individual students to report their partner's habits to the class by asking 'How often does ... read in the morning?' etc.

5. Once/twice/three times a ...

Use the first part of this exercise to present the structures 'every morning/day/year etc.' and 'once/twice/three times a day/week/month/year'. For the second part, students can write down their answers individually and then work in pairs. They swap worksheets with a partner. Student A asks the questions and check student B's answers. When finished, they swap roles.

1. every morning
2. once a year
3. twice a year

6. How healthy are you?

Students interview each other. Encourage them to give full answers and use both adverbs of frequency and the structures from Exercise 4, e.g. 'I hardly ever cook. I cook once a month.' or 'I cook once a month. I usually eat in restaurants.' Students total their scores and compare with their other classmates.

- Do you work in the same department?
- What does ... do in his/her job?
- How does ... get to work?
- Where does ... live?
- What does ... look like?
- How often do you see ...?

Key

1. Possessive 's

Do this exercise if the students are not already familiar with the possessive 's. Model the dialogue to demonstrate that when we show that something belongs to someone, we add 's. Then point at random possessions in the room and have each student ask and answer 'Whose ... is this?' In a one-to-one lesson, you could bring in a photo of some friends and ask 'Whose ... is this?'

Skip this exercise if the students do not need to practice the possessive 's, for example if you have covered the worksheet 'Family' in a previous lesson.

2. Corporate structure

Go through the vocabulary and model pronunciation. Have the students complete the exercise individually or round the class. For the second part of the exercise, students should turn to Page 1 and try to recall vocabulary from memory. Student A reads two names from the corporate tree. Student B should say the relationship between them, e.g. Masa / Anna - Masa is Anna's colleague. Annabel / Jane - Annabel and Jane work in different departments. Model with a strong student.
