1 Warm up

Which brand makes your favourite...

- computers
- phones
- clothes
- food

1. Why do you like them?
2. Why do you prefer that brand to other brands?

2 Focus on vocabulary

Part A: Match the adjectives to the definitions.

1.	reliable	a.	having the basic things needed to work, but not anything more
2.	helpful	b.	knowing that the person or object will do what you expect them/it to do
3.	affordable	c.	not being too expensive
4.	practical	d.	being able to make a situation better
5.	pricey	e.	looking good and in fashion
6.	functional	f.	costing a lot of money
7.	stylish	g.	being attractive with a beautiful design
8.	elegant	h.	works in a real situation, not just in a possible situation

Part B: Underline the stressed syllable for each of the adjectives in Part A.

1. re/li/a/ble
2. help/ful
3. af/for/da/ble
4. prac/tic/al
5. pri/cey
6. func/tion/al
7. styl/ish
8. el/e/gant

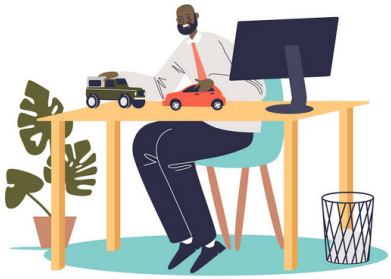

Part C: Complete the following descriptions with the adjectives from Part A.

1. If I buy jeans, I usually buy Go jeans. They are always designed in the latest fashion and they don't cost too much money. They're both _____ and _____.
2. On my trip to Asia next month, I'm definitely going to be staying in Honey Hotels when I'm in Chiang Mai and Kuala Lumpur. I've used them several times before and the staff are always there when I need them and they can always find an answer to my problems. They are so _____ and _____.
3. I bought this watch in Switzerland. It's absolutely beautiful. Whoever made it was a real artist and designed it really well. But I can tell you – it was not cheap! It is really _____, but also quite _____.
4. I'm not interested in smart phones. They're so expensive. I've got this one which does exactly what I need it to do. I can make phone calls, I can text, and that's it. I don't need anything else. It does what I need it to do, it never breaks and I don't have to worry about Wi-fi all the time. I love it because it's _____ and _____.

3 Listening

Part A: Listen to the speaker talk about cars. Which was his favourite car, the Toyota or the Mercedes?

☐ Toyota ☐ Mercedes

Part B: Now, complete the table by putting a tick in the correct box to show which of the descriptions the speaker used about each brand.

	Toyota	Mercedes
1. more reliable
2. pricier
3. more affordable
4. more functional
5. more practical
6. more stylish
7. more elegant
8. more helpful

4 Comparatives: creating basic comparatives

Part A: Read the following information and complete the examples.

We use comparative adjectives to compare one thing to another thing.

- I think the new iPhone is more elegant than the Google Plus phone.
- The new iPhone is pricier than the Nokia phone.

To create the comparative adjective, you need to look at the number of syllables of the adjective. Look at the following rules:

1. If it is one syllable or two syllables, we add -er e.g., small → _____

However, be careful with the spelling as it can change.

2. If the adjective ends in one vowel and one consonant, then we double the consonant.

e.g., big → bigger

□ fat → _____

□ thin → _____

3. If the adjective ends in a -y then we change the -y to an -i and add -er

□ easy → easier

□ pretty → _____

□ pricey → _____

4. If the adjective ends in -e, just add -r to the end.

□ close → closer

□ simple → _____

5. If the adjective has three or more syllables, just add 'more' to the adjective.

□ interesting → more interesting

□ affordable → _____

6. Check when using two-syllable adjectives.

Sometimes we add -er
□ pricey – pricier

Sometimes we have to add more:
□ boring → more boring (note: we do not say boringer)

Sometimes we can use both:
□ likely → likelier
□ likely → more likely

7. Remember that there are irregular adjectives
□ good → better
□ bad → worse
□ well → better
□ far → farther/further

Part B: Complete the following sentences with the comparative form of the adjective in brackets.

1. I prefer Timberland shoes to Gucci as they are _____ and _____. (strong/affordable)
2. I like how this iPad Air is _____ than the regular iPad, although the screen is _____. (slim/small)
3. I think Body Shop products are _____ than Jo Malone, but I like Jo Malone because it is _____. (cheap/stylish)
4. In my opinion, Microsoft computers are _____ than Dell, but they are also _____. (fast/pricey)
5. I love staying in Ritz-Carlton hotels on business trips because they are _____ than Mandarin Oriental hotels, but I do find the design of Mandarin Oriental hotels _____. (comfortable/interesting)
6. I think Apple products are generally _____ than Microsoft products, but Microsoft computers are _____ for work. (safe/practical)
7. I think most of the dresses you find in H&M are _____ than those in Primark, and I think that the quality is _____. (pretty/good)
8. I think we should offer Andrew the job, not Ian because Andrew is _____ qualified and a _____ worker. (well/hard)

5 Comparatives: creating advanced comparatives

Part A: Read the following information. Then, for each of the sentences, write a sentence that means the same thing and use the word in brackets.

1. We can also compare adjectives by using less or not as... as.

I think the Google Plus phone is less elegant than the new iPhone.

The Nokia phone is not as pricey as the iPhone.

2. We can add emphasis to the big difference between two things by using much/far/significantly/ a lot + - er or more/less

Their products are significantly bigger than ours.

Our products are a lot less expensive than theirs.

3. We can say two things are the same using (just) as + adjective + as

I think the new Samsung phone is just as good as the iPhone.

1. I think Sony computers are much worse than Dell computers. (better)

2. In my opinion, the pizza at Pizza Express is far tastier than what they make at Pizza Hut. (less)

3. Personally, I find Stephen King's books a lot scarier than Dean Koontz's books. (much)

4. I don't think the furniture at DFS is as stylish as IKEA furniture. (more)

5. I think the sandwiches at O'Neill's bakery are significantly tastier than at Evan's sandwich shop. (a lot)

6. I think the subject of Politics is a lot more interesting than Finance. (boring)

Part B: Read the following information and do the task below.

Ellipsis

Remember, if it is clear what you are talking about, you do not always have to repeat the comparison. When we leave words out that we don't need, it is called ellipsis. For example:

I think Nike trainers aren't as good as Adidas ~~trainers~~ and they're also a lot more expensive ~~than Adidas trainers~~.

In this example, we don't need to repeat 'trainers' or 'than Adidas trainers' because it's already clear what we are talking about.

Read the following paragraph. Cross out any words which you think are not needed.

I think Dell laptops are better than Microsoft laptops. They're easier to use than Microsoft laptops and lighter to carry than Microsoft laptops. The Dell laptop I bought was more expensive than the Microsoft version, but it's faster than the Microsoft laptop and more efficient than the Microsoft laptop

6 Talking point

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. What products you have bought would you describe as reliable? Do you work with anyone who you would describe like this? What did they do which makes you think this?
2. What experiences have you had with a company when they have been particularly helpful? What happened?
3. Which products do you think are quite affordable? Do you think your company's products are affordable? Why/ why not?
4. What was the last thing you bought that you thought was pricey? Was it worth the money? Why/why not?
5. What is the most elegant thing you own? Is design important to you when buying a product? Why/why not?
6. Do you think it's more important for a product to be functional or stylish? Why?

7 Extended activity/Homework

Write about a product or service that you provide in your company and compare it to the product or service of the competition.

Consider the following questions:

- What features does your product or service have that will be important to the customer?
- What does your company do really well?
- What could be improved?
- What does the competition do really well?
- What could they improve?

You should:

- Write at least 150 words
- Check your spelling, grammar and punctuation

3. Listening

Speaker: I've owned a few different cars in the past. I had a Mercedes for a few years as well as a Toyota. Obviously, there was a difference in price between the two with the Mercedes being much more expensive than the Toyota. Out of the two, I found the Toyota to be much more reliable as I never had a problem with it.

Speaker: The Mercedes on the other hand, gave me several problems and when it did, it was usually a lot pricier. So as a result, the Toyota was a lot more affordable, both in terms of price and the cost of running it. But the Toyota was also a lot more functional which was good for day-to-day use as it was a lot more practical than the Mercedes, but to be honest it was also a lot less exciting. You could really feel the power in the Mercedes, and the design? Wow, It was much more stylish and so much more elegant to look at than the Toyota.

Speaker: It was like a piece of art, inside and out. Their customer service was more helpful than any other I've used. Very quick to help with any issues that I had and very polite. So overall, I have to say that I liked the Mercedes more, even though it cost me a lot more time and money than the Toyota.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This introduces the idea of a brand and gets students to think about their preferences and compare them. At this point, don't worry too much about accuracy in the student's answers as they will have the opportunity to improve this as they progress through the lesson.

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This introduces some useful adjectives to the students which will be recycled later. Ask the students to complete Part A unaided in the first instance, but allow them to use a reference later if needed. Then ask them to consider syllable stress and ask them to complete the descriptions with the appropriate vocabulary.

1. → b. 2. → d. 3. → c. 4. → h. 5. → f. 6. → a. 7. → e. 8. → g.

Part B

1. re/li/a/ble	2. help/ful	3. af/for/da/ble	4. prac/tic/al
5. pri/cey	6. func/tion/al	7. styl/ish	8. el/e/gant

Part C

1. stylish ≀ affordable
2. reliable ≀ helpful
3. elegant ≀ pricey
4. functional ≀ practical

3. Listening

Part A

5 mins.

This gives students an opportunity to listen to the person speaking and get the overall sense of what they are talking about before listening in greater detail.

Answer: Mercedes

Part B

5 mins.

This goes into more detail and introduces some comparatives which will be recycled later in the lesson.

Answers to the table:

Toyota → 1, 3, 4, 5; Mercedes → 2, 6, 7, 8

4. Comparatives: creating basic comparatives

10 mins.

Part A

This covers the basic rules and spelling conventions of comparative adjectives. Allow the students to read and complete the examples before checking their answers with them. You may want to ask them to work in pairs.

e.g., small → smaller

e.g., big → bigger
□ fat → fatter
□ thin → thinner

□ easy → easier
□ pretty → prettier
□ pricey → pricier

□ close → closer
□ safe → safer
□ simple → simpler

□ interesting → more interesting
□ affordable → more affordable

Part B

1. stronger ≀ more affordable
2. slimmer ≀ smaller
3. cheaper ≀ more stylish
4. faster ≀ pricier
5. more comfortable ≀ more interesting
6. safer ≀ more practical
7. prettier ≀ better
8. better ≀ harder

5. Comparatives: creating advanced comparatives

5 mins.

Part A

This does more advanced work with comparatives giving students greater flexibility in their use of comparatives and asks them to rewrite sentences which helps them begin to play with the language. The ellipsis section underlines that repetition is not always needed and asks students to think about what is needed to help them edit their own work later.

1. I think Dell computers are much/far/significantly/a lot better than Sony computers.
2. In my opinion, what they make at Pizza Hut is far much /significantly/a lot less tasty than the pizza at Pizza Express.
3. Personally, I find Dean Koontz's books much less scary than Stephen King's books.
4. I think IKEA furniture is more stylish than DFS furniture.
5. I think the sandwiches at Evan's sandwich shop are a lot less tasty than at O'Neill's bakery.
6. I think the subject of Finance is much more boring than Politics.

Part B

Answer:

I think Dell laptops are better than Microsoft ~~laptops~~. They're easier to use ~~than Microsoft laptops~~ and lighter to carry ~~than Microsoft laptops~~. The Dell laptop I bought was more expensive than the Microsoft version, but it's faster than the Microsoft laptop and more efficient ~~than the Microsoft laptop~~/ The Dell laptop I bought was more expensive ~~than the Microsoft version~~, but ~~it's~~ faster ~~than the Microsoft laptop~~ and more efficient than the Microsoft laptop.

6. Talking point

10 mins.

Ask students to discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. Circulate and hep as needed.

7. Extended activity/Homework

30 mins+.

Ask students to think carefully about what their company offers and the competition before planning, writing and editing their comparison. Ask them to think about which adjectives they can apply to each company and carefully check how to make the comparative forms of those adjectives. Be sure to provide feedback on their work.

CAREER ADVICE

1 Key words

Read the sentences below and match the underlined words and phrases to their definitions:

1. I always leave work a little early in order to avoid the traffic.
2. This computer is totally outdated. Can I get a more modern one?
3. Please take your time. Don't rush your work!
4. Don't blame John for the mistake. It wasn't his fault.
5. Anne used some very bad language during the meeting. Her behaviour was totally inappropriate.
6. Joe always has positive things to say about his colleagues. He tries not to bad-mouth anybody.

a. criticize someone in a very unpleasant manner
b. do something too quickly
c. not suitable in a particular situation
d. old-fashioned
e. say that someone is responsible for something
f. stay away from

2 Reading

You are going to read an article about phrases to avoid in your career. First, look at the remarks below. Do you think it is a bad idea to use them at work? Why? Next, read the article and put each phrase above the correct paragraph like in the example.

a. "It's not my fault."

b. "No problem."

c. "I hate this job."

d. "I think .../This may be a silly idea .../I'm going to ask a stupid question."

e. "This will only take a minute."

f. "I'll try."

g. "He's lazy/incompetent/a jerk."

h. "That's not in my job description."

i. "It's not fair."

j. "I can't."

THE INDEPENDENT

10 things you shouldn't say at work

Avoiding these phrases will help you in your career.

1. Dr. Travis Bradberry, the co-founder of the testing and training company TalentSmart, said that weak remarks and words can damage careers.
2. "There are certain phrases that instantly change the way people see you," Dr. Bradberry said in a LinkedIn article. But avoiding these phrases is more difficult than you think. The 10 career killers you shouldn't say at the office are:
3. "It's not fair"

   Everyone knows that life isn't fair. Saying "it's not fair" suggests that you think life should be fair, which makes you look immature and naive.
4. _____ 2

   When someone asks you to do something or thanks you for doing something, and you tell them "no problem", it suggests that their request should normally be a problem. Instead, you should show people that you're happy to do your job. Say something like "It was my pleasure" or "I'll be happy to take care of that."
5. _____ 3

   These passive phrases instantly make you sound less credible. Even if you have a great idea, they suggest that you don't have much confidence. So try to avoid them. And, if you really don't know something, say, "I don't have that information right now, but I'll find out."
6. _____ 4

   If you say that something only takes a minute, people will think that you rush your tasks. If you're literally not going to complete the task in 60 seconds, then say that it 'won't take long'.
7. _____ 5

   Just like the word 'think', 'try' sounds weak and suggests that you don't have much confidence. Be confident in your capabilities. If you're asked to do something, either say you will do it or offer to do something different. But don't say that you'll try because it sounds like you won't try very hard.
8. _____ 6

   You shouldn't make negative remarks about a colleague. If your remark is true, everybody already knows it, so you don't need to say it. There will always be rude or incompetent people in any workplace, and everyone probably knows who they are. If you can't help them work better or fire them, then bad-mouthing them will only make you look bad.
9. _____ 7

   If you use this phrase, your boss will think that you are only interested in doing the minimum amount of work required. If your boss asks you to do something that you feel is inappropriate for your position, you should complete the task. Later, schedule a conversation with your boss to discuss your role in the company and whether your job description needs an update.
10. _____ 8

    It's never a good idea to blame other people. If something went wrong, explain what happened in an objective way and let your boss and colleagues decide who is responsible. When you start pointing fingers, you will make people nervous. Some people will avoid working with you, and others will blame you first when something goes wrong.
11. _____ 9

    People don't like to hear "I can't" because they think it means that you don't want to do something. If you really can't do something because you don't have the necessary skills, you need to offer a different solution. For example, instead of saying "I can't stay late tonight," say "I can come in early tomorrow morning. Will that work?"
12. _____ 10

    The last thing anyone wants to hear at work is someone complaining about how much they hate their job. This is bad for the morale of the group and you will look like a negative person.

Adapted from The Independent, by Zlata Rodionova, 14 October 2015

3 Checking understanding

Answer the questions below.

1. Which phrase makes other people nervous?
2. Which phrase makes you look negative?
3. Which phrase makes you look lazy?
4. Which phrase makes you look like you do things too quickly and without taking care?
5. Which phrase makes other people not want to work with you?
6. Which phrase should you avoid if somebody says 'Thank you'?
7. Which three phrases show that you are not ready or happy to do your tasks?

4 Find the word ...

Find a word or phrase in the article which means ...

1. someone who establishes a company with another person or other people (noun, P1): _____
2. makes something seem to be true (verb, P3): _____
3. If you have _____ (noun, P5), you are certain about your abilities.
4. to tell someone they must leave their job (verb, P8): _____
5. blaming other people (phrase, P10): _____
6. the amount of confidence or hope for the future that people feel (noun, P12): _____

5 Should/shouldn't for advice and expectation

Study the sentences from the text and the table on the next page:

- You should show people that you're happy to do your job.
  (= It's a good idea to show people that you're happy to do your job.)
- You shouldn't make negative remarks about a colleague.
  (= It's a bad idea to make negative remarks about a colleague.)
- ... it suggests that their request should normally be a problem.
  (= ... it suggests that you normally expect their request to be a problem.)

affirmative forms	negative forms	questions
I should	I shouldn't (= I should not)	Should I?
You should	You shouldn't	Should you?
He/she/it should	He/she/it shouldn't	Should he/she/it?
We should	We shouldn't	Should we?
You should	You shouldn't	Should you?
They should	They shouldn't	Should they?

Short answers

Yes, I should. / Yes, you should. ... No, I shouldn't. / No, you shouldn't. ...

6 Grammar practice 1

Rewrite the sentences using 'should' or 'shouldn't':

1. It's a bad idea to be late for work every day.
   You shouldn't be late for work every day.
2. It's a good idea to drink some coffee if you are sleepy.
3. It's a good idea to take a break from time to time.

   The boss .....
8. I expect that the letter will arrive before Thursday.
   The letter .....
9. It's a good idea to wear smart clothes for your job interview.

7 Grammar practice 2

Complete the table below. Decide if each piece of career advice is a good or bad idea.

	Good idea	Bad idea
Focus only on your salary.
Take risks.
Do everything that your boss asks.
Avoid difficult tasks.
Always look for a better job.
Work hard.

Now work in pairs. Ask and answer questions about the table below like in the example.

"Should I focus only on my salary?" / "No, you shouldn't"

EATING OUT

Scan to review worksheet

Expemo code:
1A5J-9ZAH-1XB

1 Warm up

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. Have you ever eaten out on business? Where did you go?
2. What kind of food do you like to eat?
3. Is there any food that you do not like to eat?

2 Focus on vocabulary

Part A: Match the vocabulary to the definitions.

1.	reservation (n)	a.	a section of a cooker with a door on the front where food can be heated or cooked
2.	tasty (adj.)	b.	a situation when a seat on a plane or train, or a room at a hotel is saved for you
3.	ingredient (n)	c.	one of the things used to make a particular food
4.	barbecue (n)	d.	a unit to measure the amount of energy contained in a particular food
5.	diet (v)	e.	food which is cooked on a metal structure over heat
6.	bake (v)	f.	cook food by putting it in an oven at a high temperature
7.	oven (n)	g.	having a really good taste
8.	calorie (n)	h.	to eat less, or to eat only certain foods, because you want to lose weight

Part B: Underline the correct number of syllables for each of the words in Part A.

1. reservation 4/5/6
2. tasty 1/2/3
3. ingredient 3/4/5
4. barbecue 2/3/4
5. diet 1/2/3
6. bake 1/2/3
7. oven 1/2/3
8. calorie 1/2/3

For all of the words of two syllables or more, underline the stressed syllable.

Part C: Using a dictionary, complete the following sentences with a different part of speech from the Part A word in brackets.

1. I'm very sorry, sir. You can't sit there. These tables are _____. (reservation)
2. You're just in time. The chicken will be _____ in a few minutes and the drinks are over there. (barbecue)
3. Madam, can I ask if you have any special _____ needs? (diet)
4. On our specials menu tonight is a cheese pasta _____ for the vegetarians, and grilled beef for the meat eaters. (bake)
5. This ice cream is delicious but I think it's very _____. (calorie)
6. Come over later! We'll be drinking wine and _____ the cheese that Sean brought back from France. (tasty)

Now put the vocabulary from Part A into the following dialogue.

Simon Fowler: Mr Gonzales, I hope you have enjoyed meeting our team today and seeing the work we do here.

Eduardo Gonzales: I have. It's been very interesting and I have learned a lot.

Simon Fowler: As you are returning home tomorrow, I have made a _____[1] at a favourite restaurant of mine for 7pm this evening.

Eduardo Gonzales: Oh, that sounds wonderful. Thank you. I am quite hungry. I didn't have much time for lunch.

Simon Fowler: Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. Well, the food at this place is fantastic. It's always very _____[2] and they always use the freshest _____[3] which they buy locally. Can I ask if you are a vegetarian?

Eduardo Gonzales: I'm not.

Simon Fowler: Then you will love the _____[4] that they do there. You can watch them cook the food you choose. They have chicken, beef, lamb and fish.

Eduardo Gonzales: It sounds fantastic. I was _____[5], but I think maybe I will have a night off tonight. It would be wrong to miss the experience of eating good food while I'm travelling for business.

Simon Fowler: It would. Although, they have a very good dish which is chicken mixed with vegetables which they _____[6] slowly in the _____[7]. It's delicious and I don't think there are too many _____[8] in it. So that's an option for you if you want to watch your weight.

3 Reading comprehension

Read the following statements about the dialogue above and decide if they are true (T) or false (F).

1. Eduardo Gonzales is visiting Simon Fowler's office. _____
2. Simon has booked a restaurant he has been to before. _____
3. Eduardo had a lot to eat in the middle of the day. _____
4. The food at the restaurant is bought from a foreign country. _____
5. Eduardo doesn't eat meat. _____
6. You can order barbecued fish at the restaurant. _____
7. Eduardo is trying to lose weight. _____
8. Simon recommends some food which could make Eduardo fat. _____

7 Talking point

In pairs, practise a role play with one of you as the customer and the other as the waiter/waitress. When you have finished, swap roles. Use the cards to help you.

Customer A

You want to order the following:

Main meal:	a cheese pasta bake or barbecued fish
Side:	a bread roll or a side salad
Drink:	a glass of house white wine or a glass of water

Customer B

You want to order the following:

Main meal:	a mild curry or barbecued beef
Side:	a side salad or fries
Drink:	a Spanish beer or a glass of orange juice

8 Homework/Extended activity

Write a description of the best meal you have had in a restaurant.

Consider the following:

- Did you make a reservation?
- What did you order?
- What were the ingredients of the food?
- What did you order to drink?
- Who were you with?

You should:

- Write at least 100 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation

Transcripts

4. Listening for details

Simon Fowler: So what do you think you will have to eat?

Eduardo Gonzales: I know you said the barbecue is good and it does look fantastic, but I see they also have curry here.

Simon Fowler: Yes, they do. It's really good. You see there are 12 different kinds. The one at the bottom is very mild and as they go up, they get more and more spicy. The one at the top - well, phew! It's really tasty, but a little too hot for me. There's a lot of garlic in it, so if you choose that, you need to be brave. And you may not be popular on the plane home tomorrow (laughs).

Eduardo Gonzales: (Laughs) I do like a strong curry though. What I do is I order a dish of yoghurt to go with it. It's nice and thick and cool so if I feel it's too spicy, I can eat some or add it to my curry to cool it down.

Simon Fowler: That's a really good idea. I might try that in future.

Eduardo Gonzales: I also like the sound of the cheeseburger, but at the same time, I could have a good cheeseburger in a lot of places.

Simon Fowler: Oh, it's really special here though. They bake the burgers for a little which makes them taste really good, and then they fry them quickly in olive oil. There are a lot of restaurants where they just put it in the microwave and it tastes terrible.

Eduardo Gonzales: The only thing I used a microwave for is heating up my coffee when I have left it too long. I don't think you should ever use one for food.

Simon Fowler: Well, here comes the waitress, so it's decision time.

5. Useful phrases in a restaurant

Waitress: Good evening, gentlemen. Are you ready to order?

Simon Fowler: I think so. I'm going to have the barbecue, please. I'd like beef with a salad on the side.

Waitress: Just to let you know that we have a special offer on our fish barbecue tonight, with 25% off. We haven't advertised that yet, so I just wanted to let you know.

Simon Fowler: That's very kind of you, but I think I will stick with the beef. I don't really like seafood very much.

Waitress: Certainly, sir. And would you like anything to drink?

Simon Fowler: I'll just have a glass of house red, please?

Waitress: Not a problem. And what about you, sir?

Eduardo Gonzales: I'm going to go for the number one curry, please! The spicy one! But can I order a dish of plain yoghurt on the side, please?

Waitress: Absolutely. And to drink?

Eduardo Gonzales: I'll have a cold beer, please. Do you have anything on draught?

Waitress: Yes, we have German, Belgian, Spanish and British beers on draught, and Mexican and American ones in bottles. The list is there.

Eduardo Gonzales: Ah, yes, sorry, I missed that. Um... I'll have, well, you have my favourite Spanish beer, but I can have that at home. I will try this German one, please.

Waitress: It's very popular, I think you will enjoy it and it will go well with your curry.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gives a gentle introduction to the subject and allows students to start thinking about the topic.

2. Focus on vocabulary

20 mins.

Part A

This introduces students to some key vocabulary that will be recycled later. They will look at the pronunciation of the vocabulary, related parts of speech and look at writing the vocabulary in context. Be sure that the students have access to a reference for Part C as some of the vocabulary here is above the CEFR level. However, seeing how words can be related to each other is an important skill for students to learn as they acquire vocabulary.

1. → b. 2. → g. 3. → c. 4. → e. 5. → h. 6. → f. 7. → a. 8. → d.

Part B

1. 4	2. 2	3. 4	4. 3
5. 2	6. 1	7. 2	8. 3

Stressed syllables:

reservation; tasty; ingredient; barbecue; diet; oven; calorie

Part C

1. reserved	2. barbecued	3. dietary
4. bake	5. calorific	6. tasting

Answers to the dialogue:

1. reservation	2. tasty	3. ingredients	4. barbecue	5. dieting
6. bake	7. oven	8. calories

3. Reading comprehension

5 mins.

Ask students to read the dialogue carefully and underline where they find the answer.

1. True. 'I hope you have enjoyed meeting our team today and seeing the work we do here.'
2. True. 'I have made a reservation at a favourite restaurant of mine for 7pm this evening.'
3. False. 'I am quite hungry. I didn't have much time for lunch.'
4. False. '...they always use the freshest ingredients which they buy locally.'
5. False. 'Can I ask if you are a vegetarian? Eduardo Gonzales: I'm not.'
6. True. 'Then you will love the barbecue that they do there. ... They have .. fish.'
7. True. 'I was dieting, but I think maybe I will have a night off tonight.'
8. False. 'Although, they have a very good dish which is chicken mixed with vegetables which they bake slowly ... I don't think there are too many calories in it. So that's an option for you if you want to watch your weight.'

4. Listening for details

10 mins.

Part A

This gives students additional vocabulary and gets them to listen for it in the first part of the Listening. You may want to explain that listening for specific information is a valuable skill.

Food mentioned:

curry; garlic; yoghurt; cheeseburger; olive oil

1. yoghurt
2. bacon
3. bread roll
4. olive oil
5. garlic
6. cheese burger
7. curry
8. honey

Part B

1. mild
2. spicy
3. brave
4. cool something down
5. fry
6. microwave

5. Useful phrases in a restaurant

5 mins.

This gives students a chance to think about useful phrases they may use or hear in a restaurant and will hear in Part 2 of the listening.

Note: You may need to explain or elicit the following.

Beer 'on draught' is from a barrel. Pubs, restaurants and bars often have beer 'on draught' (sometimes referred to as 'on tap' as well) that is poured from special taps at the bar and then other beers that are served in bottles. Beers on draught will be from a barrel and usually need to be bought directly from the brewer or a supplier. Bottles can be bought from a wholesaler and don't need any special delivery methods.

To 'stick with' something means to stay with your original choice.

If you order something 'on the side', it means it will come in its own container or dish. For example, if you order a steak with fries on the side, the fries will arrive on a separate plate or in a basket rather than on the plate with the steak.

If something 'goes well with' something else, it means the taste and texture of a particular food pairs well with another. It is why cheese is often eaten with wine, or chicken is eaten with white wine.

A 'house red' or 'house white' is a wine that is usually the cheapest on the menu and will be sold by the glass or the carafe. It is usually bought in bulk which is why it is cheaper.

1. Are you ready to order?
2. On the side.
3. I will stick with the beef.
4. Would you like anything to drink?
5. And what about you, sir?
6. A glass of house red, please?
7. Can I order a dish of ...?
8. Do you have anything on draught?
9. It will go well with...

BRIGHT IDEAS

1 Key words

Read the sentences below and match the underlined words and phrases to their definitions:

1. Alex is very stressed these days. He needs to take time off work.
2. Joe did not come to work, but nobody noticed his absence.
3. The bad economic situation will harm our business.
4. Most companies track their employees' vacation time. They want to know exactly how many days their workers are absent from work.
5. Morale is very high in our team. Everybody believes that we can become successful.
6. They claim to be very good salesmen, but I have never seen them sell anything.
7. The first generation iPhone was launched in 2007.

a. confidence, enthusiasm
b. follow
c. have a bad effect on
d. officially appeared on the market for the first time
e. say that something is true (but you cannot prove it and other people might not believe it)
f. take a break from your job
g. the time when you are not at work because of illness or holiday

2 Reading

You are going to read an article about Richard Branson, a British businessman. Put T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

1. Richard Branson wants people to take time off work whenever they want.
2. Google do not track employees' vacation time.
3. Letting employees take time off when they want has a negative effect on business.
4. Richard Branson believes that he gave Steve Jobs the idea for iPod.
5. Richard Branson's music store chain closed when Apple launched iTunes and the iPod.

Richard Branson proposes unlimited time off work.

He has introduced the idea in Virgin offices across the United States and United Kingdom.

1. Billionaire 'man of the people' Richard Branson has become more popular by saying that everyone should be able to take time off work —whenever they want.
2. "Employees should decide if and when they want to take off a few hours a day, a week or a month," the Virgin Group entrepreneur writes in his book, "The Virgin Way: Everything I Know About Leadership".
3. He introduced the new idea in Virgin offices across the United States and United Kingdom. The idea is that employees who feel their absence will not harm the business can take leave from their jobs. It is their responsibility.
4. Branson got the idea after reading an article about the Netflix business model, and how they do not track vacation time.
5. "I have a friend whose company did the same thing. They've observed an improvement in everything - morale, creativity and productivity," he said.
6. On the subject of great business ideas, Branson claimed that he gave Apple founder Steve Jobs the original inspiration for iTunes. As a result, Branson's Virgin Megastores, a chain of music shops, closed eight months after it was launched in 2001.
7. "On April Fool's Day 1986, I gave an interview to a popular music magazine and I told them that Virgin was secretly developing a 'Music Box' which could store music. For a small fee, music lovers can download any individual song or album they want."
8. "Many years later, Steve Jobs told me that he really liked the idea. We will never know for sure, but I have always wondered if the April Fool's joke resulted in the launch of iTunes and the iPod —technologies that caused the death of our Virgin Megastores and completely changed the music industry."

3 Talking point

Do you think that Richard Branson's proposal is a good idea?

4 Grammar - Defining relative clauses

A relative clause is a part of a sentence. It can begin with which, who, that or whose. Complete the table below with examples from the text.

	Use and examples
who	We use who when we are talking about people: … employees who feel their absence will not harm the business (P3)
which	We use which when we are talking about things: ……(P7)
that	We use that instead of who or which: technologies that caused the death of our Virgin Megastores (P7)
whose	We use whose instead of his/her/their: …… (P5)

Important points

1) That is more usual than which in defining relative clauses.

2) We do not use what in relative clauses.

I've never eaten a pizza ~~what~~ that tastes so good!

What = 'the thing(s) that' What I wanted was out of stock. I can't decide what to buy.

3) We can also use where when we talk about place:

I can't remember the name of the hotel where we stayed.

4) When who/that/which is the object of the verb, we can leave it out:

They didn't have the shirt that I wanted to buy. They didn't have the shirt I wanted to buy.

In the above sentence, that (= the shirt) is the object of the verb wanted. But if who/that/which is the subject of the verb, we cannot leave it out:

Do you know the woman who is standing over there?

(NOT: Do you know the woman is standing over there?)

5 Practice 1

Make one sentence or question from two, like in the example.

1. The receptionist help clients. The clients visit the company.
   The receptionist helps clients who/that visit the company.
2. I saw the employee. The employee left the company.
   I saw .....
3. Let's go to that restaurant. We ate there yesterday.
   Let's go to .....
4. I sent you an email. Did you receive it?
   Did you receive the email ..... ?
5. His new laptop doesn't work. He bought it yesterday.
   The laptop ..... work.
6. I work in an office. The office doesn't have air-conditioning.
   The office .....
7. Vladimir is a director. His company employs over 100 people.
   Vladimir is ..... 100 people.
8. They met at a café for the first time. They celebrated their anniversary there.
   They celebrated their anniversary at the .....

6 Practice 2

Put the words in the correct order, like in the example.

1. the office / This / we / work / where
   This is the office where we work.
2. who / the woman / She's / started / her own business
   .....
3. most interesting / I / He's / know / the / person / that
   .....
4. dish / the / This / which / ate / we / yesterday / is
   .....
5. get / the email / Did you / I / that / sent you ?
   ..... ?
6. the man / laptop / was stolen / He's / whose
   .....

2. Reading

Students can work individually and check in pairs. Before students read, ask if they are familiar with April Fools Day (Paragraph 6) – a celebration that takes place every year on the first day of April. Popular since the 19th century, the day is not a national holiday in any country, but it is well known in Europe, Australia, Brazil and the United States, and it is celebrated as a day when people play practical jokes and hoaxes on each other.

4. Grammar - Defining relative clauses

Students can work individually or in pairs.

Examples with 'which':

'a 'Music Box' which could store music' (P6)

Examples with 'whose':

'a friend whose company did the same thing' (P4)

5. Practice 1

Students can work individually and check in pairs. Alternatively, set the exercise for homework. For slightly stronger classes, you can ask students which sentences do not require a relative pronoun (sentences 4-5)

2. I saw the employee who/that left the company.
3. Let's go to that restaurant where we ate yesterday.
4. Did you receive the email that/which I sent you?
5. The laptop that/which he bought yesterday doesn't work.
6. The office where I work doesn't have air-conditioning.
7. Vladimir is a director whose company employs over 100 people.
8. They celebrated their anniversary at the café where they met for the first time.

6. Practice 2

Students can work individually and check in pairs. Alternatively, set the exercise for homework. For slightly stronger classes, you can ask students which sentences do not require a relative pronoun (sentences 3-5).

2. She's the woman who started her own business.
3. He's the most interesting person that I know.
4. This is the dish which we ate yesterday.
5. Did you get the email that I sent you?
6. He's the man whose laptop was stolen.

3 Reading for gist

Read the dialogue below and put the words from Part A into the correct gaps.

Manager: Morning, Steve. As you know, I wanted to have a _____[1] of your time with us so far. I want to look at what you've done so far and what you plan on doing in the future.

Steve: Yes, sounds good. I appreciate you taking the time.

Manager: So, you've been working here for two years now. How do you feel about the job?

Steve: I enjoy it most of the time. To begin with, there was a lot to learn as the way designers work in this company is very different to the companies I worked for before. I didn't _____[2] that at the beginning.

Manager: Yes, there is quite a specific way we do things here. You probably need to produce results faster, I would imagine.

Steve: Exactly. But I would say after 8 months or so, I learned what I needed to do. So now I'm very comfortable and enjoy working on the team and I love playing football with them once a week on Tuesday lunch times. I think it's a really good thing that you suggested that. But I don't think I'm learning anything new. I'm easily meeting all of my targets. I have made an _____[3] for the job of Managing Designer to see if I can make some progress with my career.

Manager: Yes, so I've been told. I think it's a great move and you're more than _____[4] for the position. As you say, you're meeting your targets and you're very _____[5] in the way you deal with other staff and customers. I would definitely support your application on one _____[6]...

Steve: Oh what's that?

Manager: That you keep playing football for our team on Tuesday. The Sales team is getting better and I don't want them to beat us.

Steve: (laughs) Oh that's not a problem. I'll be there.

Manager: Well, that's great Steve. I certainly don't have any _____[7]. Your _____[8] has been excellent. It's a real pleasure working with you and I wish you all the success with your application. And even if they don't choose you this time, I'm sure there will be other opportunities. Everyone has a really positive opinion of you here and I want to thank you for all the work you do.

Steve: Thanks very much. That means a lot.

4 Reading comprehension

Manager: What do you think your strengths are?

Speaker 1: I think I'm good at working with other people in the team and I have made some very strong relationships with customers.

Manager: Yes, your communication skills are fantastic and our customers very much enjoy working with you. Both of those are excellent.

Speaker 1: Sometimes it gets so busy that I find it hard to finish everything I have to do.

Manager: Yes, I've noticed you get stressed sometimes. Don't worry. You're still good, but I'm going to give you some training to help you with that. You're excellent at learning new skills, so I think that will help. I think the other thing that will help is if you make sure you're at work on time. I've noticed you are often late in the morning.

Manager: Now you are excellent at getting your work done on time, and your communication skills are good, but I have to say that you're not very helpful with some of the other people on the team. You're very qualified and other people would really enjoy your help and your experience.

Speaker 2: Oh, I'm sorry, I really enjoy learning new skills but I don't feel like I'm a very good teacher. I get angry quickly when people don't understand.

Manager: Yes, you're good on the training courses we've been on. Maybe we should give you some training with customer service as that would help you to learn how to explain things to people.

Speaker 2: Yes, I know I need to work on my communication skills.

Manager: I have a few negative things to say, I'm afraid. A lot of people complain that you are always late in the morning. As you know, we have meetings that begin at 9 am every day. So if you're late, everyone can see. To add to that, you also leave early quite often. I saw you leave before 4 the other day. You don't really say anything in the meetings we have or offer any ideas. In fact, you don't really seem to speak to anyone else at all. You're also not very helpful with other people in the team. Because you're always late, they have to do a lot more work because you never finish your tasks. Do you understand what I mean?

Speaker 3: Wait a minute, just let me finish this text to my friend. I'll be with you in a second ...

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gets students to assess themselves in a general way which they will return to later in the lesson.

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

This section introduces useful vocabulary and looks at different parts of speech connected to those words as well as pronunciation. Ask students to do Part A unaided in the first instance, but allow them to use a reference later if needed. For Part C, they will probably need a dictionary as the vocabulary is above level but is related. It is a good habit for the students to get into looking at other parts of speech connected to vocabulary they are learning.

1. → h. 2. → d. 3. → a. 4. → c. 5. → b. 6. → e. 7. → g. 8. → f.

Part B

1. per/for/mance	2. ex/pect	3. re/view	4. qual/i/fied
5. pro/fess/ion/al	6. con/dit/ion	7. app/li/ca/tion	8. com/plaint

Part C

1. perform	2. expectation	3. review	4. qualifications
5. profession	6. conditional	7. apply	8. complain

3. Reading for gist

5 mins.

This recycles the vocabulary from Part A and gives the students a chance to read the dialogue for the first time.

1. review	2. expect	3. application	4. qualified
5. professional	6. condition	7. complaints	8. performance

4. Reading comprehension

10 mins.

This tests students' understanding of the dialogue. Ask them to underline where they find their answers.

1. False. 'As you know, I wanted to have a review of your time with us so far.'
2. True. 'To begin with, there was a lot to learn as the way designers work in this company is very different to the companies I worked for before.'
3. True. 'You probably need to produce results faster, I would imagine. Steve: Exactly.'
4. False. 'I would say after 8 months or so, I learned what I needed to do.... But I don't think I'm learning anything new.'
5. True. 'I think it's a great move and you're more than qualified for the position.'
6. False. '...keep playing football for our team on Tuesday. The Sales team is getting better and I don't want them to beat us.'
7. True. 'Everyone has a really positive opinion of you here...'

5. Listening for gist

5 mins.

This allows students to get a general idea of the three reviews. The first one is the best review as they are told they are excellent in a number of areas.

6. Listening comprehension

10 mins.

This allows students to listen more carefully and gives them a chance to discuss their own self- assessment from the Warm up as well as reviews generally.

Answers to the table:

Speaker 1 → a. - needs work, b. - excellent, c. - excellent, d. - good, e. -excellent, f. - excellent

Speaker 2 → a. - X, b. - good, c. - X, d. - excellent, e. - needs work, f. - good

Speaker 3 → a. - needs work, b. - needs work, c. - X, d. - needs work, e. - needs work, f. - X

7. Talking point

10 mins.

This recycles some of the vocabulary from the Focus on vocabulary section. Ask the students to discuss in pairs or small groups and circulate and help as needed.

8. Extended activity/ Homework

20 mins+

Ask students to choose a task then plan, write and edit their answers. Be sure to give students feedback on their work.

3 Reading for gist

Match the titles to paragraphs A- D and write them in the correct gaps 1-4. There are more titles than paragraphs.

a) How working from home changed us

b) The way we should dress

c) The cost of business clothes

d) What now?

e) How it was

f) How tech changed how we dress

Changing business clothes

Do we still need to dress for success?

_____ 1

A. There was a time when for most people, going to the office meant putting on a suit, a fresh shirt and tie or a blouse and a long skirt. Dressing professionally for the office was part of the job. It was important not only to look smart for your colleagues, but to look respectable for any customers or clients you may have to deal with. Managers particularly, could do worse than invest in an expensive designer suit. You didn't just dress for the job you had, but for the job you wanted. Being well-dressed was a message to your boss that you were to be taken seriously. It didn't matter if you felt uncomfortable in your work clothes, it was what you did.

_____ 2

B. Then the technology industry started to gain importance and money. They changed the rules of what was expected when it came to dressing for the office. Mark Zuckerberg, Steve Jobs and Jack Dorsey were not known for wearing suits despite having a great deal of authority. Suddenly businesses were seeing people wearing sweatshirts, baggy clothes, denim and tennis shoes to work. It was not about how you looked but what you did. In some ways, not wearing an expensive suit was a power move. It said, 'I don't need you to like how I look.'

_____ 3

C. When the pandemic happened, this forced another change in our relationship with the office, clothes and each other. Very quickly, the world had to learn to work online and communicate from home. Sitting at home while dressed in a suit made no sense. It was well-known that during video calls, many people were dressing professionally only on the part of their body that could be seen by the camera. Below the desk, shorts, jeans and pyjamas, or anything else that was comfortable was perfectly fine.

_____ 4

D. Now, with the people returning to offices, will this affect the dress code? It's likely to be different for different companies. The best advice is to watch what your managers wear. Arriving in a suit if your boss and the rest of the people in the office are wearing jeans and sweatshirts is probably not a good idea. It will make you stand out in a way that is not positive. The opposite is also true. Generally, making sure that clothes are clean and smart and that any jewellery, such as necklaces and earrings are not too large is good advice.

Listen to the article to check your ideas.

4 Reading comprehension

Complete the following sentences with one, two or three words from the article on page four.

1. In the past, when you were at the office, there was a need _____ as many people were dealing with customers or clients and looking professional was a must.
2. Wearing professional clothes sent _____ to your colleagues and your manager that you were a serious employee.
3. What _____ of how to dress at work, was when the technology industry developed and suddenly sweatshirts and jeans were seen in the office.
4. You no longer needed to own _____ to be a respected employee.
5. When the pandemic came, forcing us all _____, it changed how we dressed again.
6. Many of us wore professional clothes in view of the camera, but _____, we could wear what we wanted.
7. Now, _____ have different rules for clothes, and the best thing to do if you're new is to ask.
8. It's generally _____ to be presentable, but be aware of what others are wearing, and try to fit in.

5 Finding vocabulary

Part A: Find words in the article on page four which mean the same as the following:

1. _____ being good and thought of positively by others (adj., para. A)
2. _____ wearing smart clothes (adj., para. A)
3. _____ in a way that shows you are not playing or being silly (adv., para. A)
4. _____ the power to make decisions about what happens (n, para. B)
5. _____ an action that shows you have authority (n, para. B)
6. _____ comfortable and warm clothes worn in bed (n, para. C)
7. _____ the rules for what you can and cannot wear (n, para. D)
8. _____ do something that makes people notice you (phr. v, para. D)

Part B: Now, complete the following questions with the vocabulary that you found.

1. Who has the most _____ in your office? What do they do?
2. What is the _____ in your company? Do you follow it?
3. Do you wear _____ at night?
4. Do you like to be _____ in the office? What do you normally wear?
5. Have you ever done something that made you _____ at work? What was it?
6. Do you think it is important to always act _____ when you're in the office? Or is it OK to have fun sometimes?

Now discuss the questions in pairs.

6 Talking point

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. Would you describe yourself as trendy or unfashionable? Why?
2. If you had £1 million, would you change how you dress?
3. Which clothes do you think are uncomfortable? Why?
4. Do you like to buy and wear designer clothes? Why/why not?
5. What are your favourite clothes to wear?

7 Extended activity/Homework

Imagine you run your own business. Decide what the dress code is. Write down the rules for what people can and can't wear and explain why.

You should:

- Write at least 150 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This is designed to get students talking about their own clothes and help them to start thinking about relevant vocabulary.

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This gives students a lot of vocabulary to work with and asks them to organise it, while linking it to visual aids and models for descriptions. Students may have different opinions about some of the adjectives, such as uncomfortable (for example, what is uncomfortable for one person, may be comfortable for another), but this is fine as long as they can explain why they think as they do. Ensure students can correctly pronounce the vocabulary and understand the concept of a syllable.

Answers to the table:

Words for clothes: blouse (1); necklace (2); sweatshirt (2); tights (1); sunglasses (3); tennis shoes (3); gloves (1); earrings

Words to describe material: cotton (2); denim (2); fur (1); leather (2); wool (1)

Words to describe clothes: baggy (2); designer (3); uncomfortable (5); smart (1); trendy (2); unfashionable (5)

Part B

1. designer ≀ cotton ≀ blouse ≀ smart ≀ uncomfortable
2. tennis shoes ≀ denim ≀ sweatshirt ≀ baggy/trendy
3. sunglasses ≀ leather ≀ denim
4. cotton ≀ blouse
5. tights ≀ unfashionable/uncomfortable/trendy/smart
6. fur ≀ gloves ≀ wool

3. Reading for gist

6 mins.

You may want to set a time limit to encourage students to skim read rather than read in detail.

Titles not used: The way we should dress; The cost of business clothes

1. How it was
2. How tech changed how we dress
3. How working from home changed us
4. What now?

4. Reading comprehension

10 mins.

Give them longer to read and ask them to complete the sentences with one, two or three consecutive words from the article.

1. to look smart
2. a message
3. changed the rules
4. an expensive suit
5. to work online
6. below the desk
7. different companies
8. a good idea

5. Finding vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This uses the article for the students to find useful vocabulary and then recycles it into questions for discussion. Circulate and help as needed.

1. respectable
2. well-dressed
3. seriously
4. authority
5. power move
6. pyjamas
7. dress code
8. stand out

Part B

1. authority
2. dress code
3. pyjamas
4. well-dressed
5. stand out
6. seriously

6. Talking point

10 mins.

Ask the students to discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. You may want them to switch pairs from the previous exercise for diversity.

7. Extended activity/Homework

20 mins+

This is a fun way to get students to consider a dress code and for them to recycle some of the vocabulary that they have learned in the lesson. Be sure to give them feedback on their work. You may even want to have a couple read out their work to the class when you have corrected it.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____

Stories from the office

A. Sandra's story

Coleen looked really _____[1] yesterday. She arrived late for work and she didn't really talk to anyone during the day. She kept going outside to talk on her phone. Later, she told me she was really _____[2] because she had hit a van when she was parking in the office car park, and she was _____[3] that she might get into trouble with the police. She didn't know who the van belonged to, but I'm sure they aren't going to be happy.

B. Lilly's story

You'll never guess what happened at the office today. There was an earthquake. It was in the middle of the morning and I was in a meeting with my team when suddenly the whole building started to shake. It was really very scary. A lot of people were shouting and everyone was really _____[4] about what would happen next. We all got under the table in case anything started falling. It all stopped after a few minutes but it seemed like hours. We all left the building so that it could be checked for safety. But it was fine. I was _____[5] that none of the windows were broken.

C. Justin's story

I'm really _____[6] because my manager is moving to a different company. I love working with him, he's very kind and really good at organising the team. He never looks stressed and he's always really _____[7] at work, smiling and talking to everyone. He usually brings in cakes on a Friday and always remembers people's birthdays. I will really miss him. But I am happy for him. Now he has made the decision to go, he looks really _____[8]. He doesn't have to worry about anything in this job.

Part B: Now put the adjectives from Part A of the Focus on vocabulary section into the correct gaps in the stories.

4 Reading comprehension

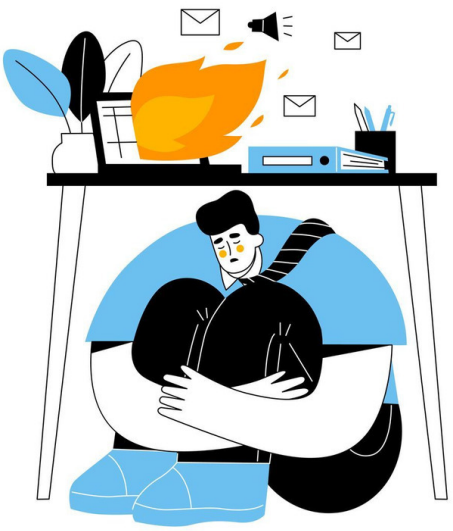

Look at the verbs in the box. Use them to complete the summary of each of the stories. Make sure you use them in the correct form.

last	make	leave	communicate
shake	work	break	hide

Sandra knew Coleen had a problem because she came to work late and didn't _____[1] with anyone, but _____[2] a lot of phone calls. Sandra found out that she had hit a van with her car outside and was very worried about getting into trouble.

There was an earthquake while Lilly was at work which made her office _____[3]. Everyone was terrified and _____[4] under the tables. The situation only _____[5] a few minutes but it felt like longer. They all had to leave the building, but nothing was _____[6].

Justin's manager is _____[7] which he is sad about because he really likes _____[8] with him. His manager looks happy and not at all stressed.

5 Personal qualities

Look at the adjectives in the box and add them to the correct sentences.

ambitious	organised	experienced	kind honest	selfish	sociable	professional

1. She keeps a diary so that she knows when everything is going to happen. She's _____.
2. He's always happy to talk to people and loves going out to parties. He's _____.
3. She's been working here for over ten years and knows a lot about the job. She's _____.
4. She's only been working here for less than a year, but she wants to be the CEO one day. She's _____.
5. He's always very polite to his colleagues and works hard. He's _____.
6. He drove Susan home when she had a problem with her car and fixed it for her the next day. He's _____.
7. She didn't bring any food to the office party, but finished all the sandwiches before everyone had eaten. She's _____.
8. He found someone's wallet with £50 cash in it and gave it in to reception. He's _____.

6 Prefixes

Write the adjectives from the previous exercise under the correct prefix to create opposites.

un-	dis-	in-

7. Listening for gist

Speaker 1: We all got together last night to celebrate five years of the company being in business. Sally had arranged the whole thing: the food, the drinks and also some games for us to play. She had done an amazing job and had worked on it for weeks. I had a really good time, but Peter complained the whole time about not wanting to be there. He said that we shouldn't have to do things connected to work out side of normal office hours and he didn't talk to anyone. He just looked upset all night and ate all of the chocolate biscuits. Jessica said he just looked like a fat frog sitting in the corner.

Speaker 2: I met a guy called Jason today who was looking for a new job. I don't think he's going to get it. To begin with he was late, he arrived almost 20 minutes after the time we had arranged. He was wearing a jacket, but he had a T-shirt on underneath it and black jeans and black trainers. I liked him a lot though, he was very funny and talked to all three of us quite happily for nearly an hour. He said that he really wanted to learn as he hoped to be a CEO of his own company in the future. We found out later though that he had not passed the exams he said he'd passed.

Speaker 3: Priscilla had to give her first ever presentation today in front of the whole department. She looked really stressed and nervous. It started badly because she couldn't get her laptop to work for ten minutes while we all sat there not knowing what to say. When she did start the presentation, she talked really quietly and it was difficult to hear what she was saying. She apologised at the end and said she had only started to prepare for it the night before because she had been so busy.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gives students some at- level vocabulary which will be the basis of further work in the vocabulary section. Ask the students to match the adjectives to the photographs and discuss the questions.

1. worried
2. surprised
3. pleased
4. scared

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This adds to the students' vocabulary by adding higher-level synonyms to the words at the beginning, focusing on the pronunciation and asking students to personalise their meaning. Ask students to do Part A unaided in the first instance, but allow them to use a dictionary if needed later.

1. → a. 2. → g. 3. → b. 4. → f. 5. → d. 6. → h. 7. → e. 8. → c.

Which of these adjectives can you use with the photographs in the Warm up activity? ↦ Student's own answers, but likely answers are→ 1: stressed, upset; 2: amazed; 3: cheerful, relaxed; 4: frightened, terrified

Part B

1. dis/a/ppoin/ted
2. up/set
3. cheer/ful
4. a/mazed
5. ter/ri/fied
6. frigh/tened
7. re/laxed

3. Reading for gist

5 mins.

Part A

You may want to set a short time limit on this activity to encourage students to skim read rather than read in detail. This allows students to get a general idea of the story and recycle the vocabulary from the vocabulary section.

1. C. Justin's story
2. Not used
3. B. Lilly's story
4. A. Sandra's story

Answers to the text:

1. stressed
2. upset
3. frightened
4. terrified
5. amazed
6. disappointed
7. cheerful
8. relaxed

4. Reading comprehension

5 mins.

This ensures students have understood the text and gives them some practice ensuring verb forms fit. You may want to make sure they can access a table with irregular verb forms for reference.

1. communicate
2. made
3. shake
4. hid
5. lasted
6. broken
7. leaving
8. working

5. Personal qualities

5 mins.

This focuses on the meaning of the various adjectives in context and prepares for the work on Prefixes which follows.

1. organised
2. sociable
3. experienced
4. ambitious
5. professional
6. kind
7. selfish
8. honest

6. Prefixes

5 mins.

This allows students to expand on the previous exercise and double the adjectives they have to use. You may want to elicit the meaning of a prefix and elicit some examples that you have prepared.

Answers to the table:

un- → ambitious, sociable, professional, kind, selfish; dis- → organised, honest; in- → experienced

7. Listening for gist

5 mins.

This allows students to hear the recording once and get a general idea of what they are discussing ahead of the more detailed comprehension.

1. → c. 2. → b. 3. → a.

8. Listening comprehension

5 mins.

For lower-level classes, you may want to write the adjectives for the students to see and ask them to decide which ones apply to the people in the listening.

1. organised, kind
2. selfish, unsociable
3. unkind
4. unprofessional, disorganised, dishonest, ambitious
5. disorganised, inexperienced

9. Talking point

10 mins.

This allows students to personalise the vocabulary. Ask the to discuss the questions in pairs or small groups and circulate and help as needed.

10. Extended activity/Homework

20 mins+.

Ask students to plan, write and edit a short piece of writing. Be sure to give them feedback on their work.

2 Reading for gist

Read texts a – h below. Which of the activities from the Warm up are being described?

a. I spend a lot of time covered in soil. I enjoy spending time growing flowers and plants. I should grow more vegetables than I do because it saves a lot of money. I mostly do it in the summer. It's surprising how much exercise you get from it. _____

b. I enjoy taking portraits of my family and friends. I think I sometimes enjoy it more than they do! I have to buy a new camera. I can't take pictures of birds at the moment because they are too quick, so I need a faster one. _____

c. I can't always catch anything, but spending a day sitting by a river is so relaxing, so I don't have to. I have a few friends who come with me once a month, but I usually want peace and quiet, so I go alone. _____

d. I'm never happier than when I'm walking through the countryside and up mountains with my backpack on. Life is so busy, so it's good to feel free and like you can go where you want to go. Even if it's raining. _____

e. I learned to do it on a farm and I still go there. There's a lot of cleaning and you have to make sure you feed them well and look after them. But I love being in the saddle and watching the world go by. There are places where we can go really fast and I enjoy that, but most of the time, it's quite slow and peaceful. I shouldn't go as often as I do, but I can't help it. _____

f. The first time I did it, I was on holiday in Thailand and I was surprised by how tricky it was. It looks as though it is quite easy because you move so slowly, but you have to have a lot of strength to do it really well. _____

g. There are a lot of parks near where I live. I usually go to one first thing in the morning. A little further away is a forest that has a track through it that is perfect. I love listening to the birds while I do it. I should buy some new trainers because the ones I have are falling apart. _____

3 Finding vocabulary

Part A: Match the words that were used in the texts to their meanings on the right.

1.	backpack (n)	a.	a photograph or a painting of a person, usually of the head and shoulders
2.	portrait (n)	b.	the ability to be strong
3.	relaxing (adj.)	c.	a strong bag designed to carry on your back
4.	saddle (n)	d.	the earth that plants, trees and flowers can grow in
5.	soil (n)	e.	a path through a natural area made by people walking there often
6.	strength (n)	f.	helping you feel rested and free of stress
7.	track (n)	g.	being hard to do or difficult to deal with
8.	tricky (adj.)	h.	a seat on a horse or a bike designed to make the person riding feel more comfortable

Part B: Write the number of syllables each word has next to it. Then, for each word, decide which syllable is stressed if it has more than one syllable.

Part C: Now complete the following sentences with a different part of speech of the word in brackets. You may need to use a dictionary.

1. After I finished university, I went _____ across the US for several months. It was so much cheaper than any other travelling I've done since. (backpack)
2. I sometimes take a long bath at the end of the day. It really helps me to _____. (relaxing)
3. I don't know what happened in the kitchen, but all of the towels are _____. We need some clean ones quickly. (soil)
4. I hope during our visit to their office in Berlin, we will be able to _____ our relationship with them so it will be easier to do business with them in future. (strength)
5. The project is currently on _____ to finish ahead of the end of August which should please management. (track)
6. They _____ us into ordering the more expensive version, but the cheaper one would have been better for us. (tricky)

4 Focus on modal verbs

Modal verbs are extra verbs which change the meaning of a sentence. Match the following sentences to their meanings.

1. I should go to the office on Tuesday.
2. I have to go to the office on Tuesday.
3. I can go to the office on Tuesday.
4. I can't go to the office on Tuesday.
5. I don't have to go to the office on Tuesday.
6. I shouldn't go to the office on Tuesday.

a. It's not important if I go to the office on Tuesday or not.

b. It's not possible for me to go to the office on Tuesday.

c. It's a bad idea to go to the office on Tuesday.

d. It's important that I go to the office on Tuesday.

e. It's possible for me to go to the office on Tuesday.

f. It's a good idea to go to the office on Tuesday.

Now underline all of the modal verbs in the texts on page two.

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. What do you have to do for your job?
2. What tasks should you do this week?
3. What can you do at the weekend that you can't do during the week?
4. What can't you do in the office that you want to do?
5. What do you have to do at the office that you don't have to do in your free time?

5 Focus on vocabulary

Match the vocabulary to the definitions.

1.	countryside (n)	a.	feeling unhappy and wanting to cry
2.	distracted (adj.)	b.	the killing of someone in a way that is against the law
3.	murder (n)	c.	relax and not do any work
4.	pay good money (idiom)	d.	not focused on a task and thinking about other things
5.	put your feet up (idiom)	e.	happily spend cash on doing something because it's interesting or attractive
6.	surf (v)	f.	ride waves in the sea on a board as a sport
7.	thriller (n)	g.	a story, often involving crime, which is exciting to read or watch
8.	upset (adj.)	h.	the area where there are fields, trees and farms away from towns and cities

6 Listening for details

Listen to the audio. Underline the Speaker who uses the words from the Focus on vocabulary.

1. countryside: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
2. distracted: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
3. murder: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
4. pay good money: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
5. put your feet up: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
6. surf: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
7. thriller: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3
8. upset: Speaker 1 / Speaker 2 / Speaker 3

7 Listening comprehension

Listen again and complete the table by putting a tick in the correct box.

Who...	Speaker 1	Speaker 2	Speaker 3
a. likes to listen to music while they do another activity?
b. occasionally watches films at the cinema?
c. is good at swimming?
d. is married?
e. has a child?
f. enjoys cooking?
g. plays golf?
h. likes to go hiking?

8 Talking point

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. What do you do to relax?
2. What do you like to do in your free time?
3. When during the week do you usually have the most free time?
4. What do you like to do on holiday?
5. Do you think it is important to have free time? Why/why not?

9 Extended activity/Homework

Write an account of what you usually do in your free time to relax. Use the vocabulary and work you have done in this lesson to help you plan your work.

You should:

- Write at least 150 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation

Transcripts

6. Listening for details

Speaker 1: I spend a lot of my free time with my daughter. She's an excellent swimmer and last year she started learning how to surf when we were at the beach. So we have to go swimming on Saturday mornings at the local pool so she can practise. I used to surf, so I'm helping her to learn and teach her how to swim. She wants to be ready for when we go back to the beach later this year. In the afternoon, we usually go to the cinema together. We both love comedy films, so we'll watch one if there's anything good out or sometimes, we just stay home and watch something on Netflix while I cook our evening meal. She really likes my pizza, so I often make that, or burgers. I can make much better burgers than McDonald's does. On Sundays, I will usually do a bit of work in the morning, but we go for a walk in the afternoon, or sometimes we'll go for a hike in the countryside.

Speaker 2 : I find it very relaxing to paint in my free time. I have a room where I keep all of my stuff and I like to go in there, put some classical music on and spend a few hours painting. My husband thinks I like painting more than I like him, and sometimes he's right! I usually paint flowers or fruit. I love natural colours. I do enjoy going out to eat with my husband. I like Italian food most of all and I like to go to restaurants and try new things. When I'm at home, I see if I can make the same thing in my kitchen. I've even learned how to make my own fresh pasta. I made a really good meal using pasta and seafood. My husband said he'd pay good money to eat it in a restaurant, so I was quite pleased with that. I also play golf with my husband sometimes. I'm better than he is, but I have to let him win sometimes, just so he doesn't feel upset.

Speaker 3: I work in sales and I'm very busy during the week and do a lot of walking. So at the weekend, I really need to put my feet up. I love to just read a book while I have some music on. My favourite thing to read is a good thriller or a murder mystery. I also go swimming sometimes, but I don't swim very well. I just like to be in the water and stay where it's not very deep. It makes me feel calm. I sometimes go to the cinema. I should go more often, but it's very expensive. I watch films at home, but I find that when I'm in the cinema, I focus on the film a lot more. When I'm at home. I get distracted more and look at my phone or keep going to the kitchen to make tea or something to eat.

Key

1. Warm up

10 mins.

This gives the students some basic activities at the appropriate language level and asks them to discuss them. They will have more opportunity to discuss their free time later, so keep the discussion focused just on these activities for the moment.

1. climbing
2. horse riding
3. hiking
4. photography
5. jogging
6. gardening
7. fishing
8. yoga

2. Reading for gist

5 mins.

This recycles the vocabulary from the previous exercise and focuses on students' ability to understand gist. You may want to set a time limit to encourage students to skim read rather than read in detail.

a. gardening
b. photography
c. fishing
d. hiking
e. horse-riding
f. yoga
g. jogging

3. Finding vocabulary

10 mins.

This gets the students to focus in more detail on specific vocabulary which is then used as a basis for pronunciation and dictionary work. Part C looks at above level vocabulary, but it is useful to encourage students to look at other parts of speech when they learn new vocabulary to widen their knowledge as far as possible.

1. → c. 2. → a. 3. → f. 4. → h. 5. → d. 6. → b. 7. → e. 8. → g.

Part B

back/pack (2); por/trait (2); re/lax/ing (3); sad/dle (2); so/il (2); strength (1); track (1); trick/y (2)

Part C

1. backpacking
2. relax
3. soiled
4. strengthen
5. track
6. tricked

4. Focus on modal verbs

10 mins.

This takes the opportunity to look at the usage of a select group of modal verbs and raise students' awareness of how to use them. Allow students to discuss the questions after they have completed the exercises and circulate and help as needed.

1. → f. 2. → d. 3. → e. 4. → b. 5. → a. 6. → c.

5. Focus on vocabulary

5 mins.

This looks at some level appropriate vocabulary which is used in the listening which students may not be aware of.

1. → h. 2. → d. 3. → b. 4. → e. 5. → c. 6. → f. 7. → g. 8. → a.

6. Listening for details

5 mins.

This reinforces the work done in the previous exercise and practises students' ability to listen for specific information.

1. Speaker 1
2. Speaker 3
3. Speaker 3
4. Speaker 2
5. Speaker 3
6. Speaker 1
7. Speaker 3
8. Speaker 2

7. Listening comprehension

5 mins.

This checks students' comprehension of the listening. You may want to pair students up to check each other's answers before confirming them with the class. You may want to point out to the students that some of the questions have more than one answer.

Answers:

a → Speaker 2, Speaker 3; b → Speaker 3; c → Speaker 1; d → Speaker 2; e → Speaker 1; f → Speaker 1, Speaker 2; g → Speaker 2; h → Speaker 1

8. Talking point

10 mins.

Ask the students to discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. Circulate and help as needed.

9. Extended activity/Homework

30 mins+.

Ask the students to plan, write and edit an account of what they do with their free time and what they enjoy doing.

EXCHANGING INFORMATION

6. If someone calls your office, does reception _____ them _____ you? Or do people usually call you directly?

Work in pairs and discuss the questions above.

3 Understanding a conversation

Complete the conversation below with the following phrases in gaps 1-10.

Any particular time?	could work for me
I'd be particularly interested to	I don't think we have a very good connection.
I'll make a note of it	just a moment
Shall we say	thank you for calling
Who would you like to speak to?	Would either of those days suit you?

Reception: Hello, this is the reception.

Meera: Good morning, I'd like to speak to Helena Davis, please?

Reception: I'm sorry, a police car just went past so I missed that. _____[1]

Meera: Helena Davis, please? That's D-A-V-I-S.

Reception: Ah yes, _____[2], please... Right, I'm putting you through to her now. Thank you!

Helena: Helena Davis, speaking.

Meera: Hi Helena, Meera Hosani, here. We spoke last Tuesday.

Helena: Oh, Hi Meera, _____[3], how are you?

Meera: No problem. I'm fine thanks. I just wanted to check with you on the best day to meet at the conference and which of our products you were particularly interested in?

Helena: Yes, absolutely. Now, looking at my schedule, I think the best days to meet would be either Tuesday or Thursday. Monday I have to give a presentation and Wednesday, I'll be in meetings with my colleagues most of the day. I'm likely to be catching a flight fairly early on Friday. _____[4]

Meera: Thursday _____[5]. I don't have many appointments that day.

Helena: Great. _____[6]

Meera: _____[7] 11 am?

Helena: ...

Meera: Hello? Can you hear me, Helena?

Helena: Hello, I'm sorry, I lost you for a second there. _____[8] Can you repeat that?

Meera: Yes, no problem. I said 11 am. Is that OK?

Helena: Yes, fine. _____[9]. And to answer your question about products, _____[10] see your range of face creams and soaps. But I'm open to learning more about your other products too.

Meera: Fantastic. I'll make sure I have them all with me.

Helena: Wonderful. We are looking at increasing our range and it would be really good to see what you are offering.

4 Reading comprehension

Read the following statements about the conversation on page three and decide if they are true (T) or false (F).

1. The receptionist is in a police car. _____
2. Helena and Meera have not spoken to each other before now. _____
3. Helena might want to buy products from Meera. _____
4. Helena is available to meet on Wednesday. _____
5. They agree to meet on Thursday at 11 in the morning. _____
6. Meera sells beauty products. _____
7. Helena sells beauty products. _____

5 Giving information

Your teacher will give you some information and your partner some different information. Take it in turns to read out the information that you have and write it down. Do not show your information to your partner.

Units received: _____ [12]

Phone number of customer: _____ [13]

Speaker 5:

Address: _____ [14]

Postcode: _____ [15]

Email: _____ [16]

8 Extended activity/Homework

Write a conversation like the ones you would have when you are at work.

Think about the following:

- What questions are you usually asked?
- What information do you usually have to give?
- Can you use any of the phrases you looked at today to improve the conversation?

You should:

- Write at least 100 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation

6. Listening for gist

Speaker 1 (Male): Hi, I wanted to introduce myself. My name is Stephen Friers, that's S-T-E-P-H-E-N and then F-R-I-E-R-S. I'm interested in making an order with you. My number is 774-8932-5581. Alternatively, you can email me at Stephen-dot-Friers at wilkex dot com. That's W-I-L-K-E-X dot com. I hope to hear from you soon.

Speaker 2 (Female): Hi Diedre, this is Stephanie. Someone called David Butler called for you. His last name is B-U-T-L-E-R. He asked if you could send some samples to him at 89, Warren Street, that's W-A-R-R-E-N Street. London. The post code is N10 8 U D, that's en-ten-eight, you – dee. He's particularly interested in products 15 and 55. Thanks.

Speaker 3 (Male): Hey, Ahmed, it's Gabriel, just wanted to let you know I've ordered 3,400 units for next week. They should be arriving at 4pm next Monday. Also, I think you should check out the website of this other company I've been looking at. I think they've got some interesting products that could really help us out. Have a look. It's www dot fan-taze dot co dot uk. That's www dot f-a-n-t-a-z-e dot co dot uk.

Speaker 4 (Female): Jed, it's Chloe. We seem to have a problem with a customer's order. He called earlier to say he's received 15,000 units, but he'd ordered 50,000. Can you get back to him? His number is 02719 659152. Thanks!

Speaker 5 (Male): Sara, there's been a change of plan. Instead of coming back to the office, can you meet me at the client's office? Their address is 925 Loughborough Street. Put it in Google Maps. It's L-O-U-G-H-B-O-R-O-U-G-H Street. The post code is R14 9FL. Also, can you just send an email to them just to let them know we're coming. I need to leave now or I'd do it myself. Her email is Siobhan dot Flannerty at cerebus dot com. The spelling is tricky, it's S-I-O-B-H-A-N and then F-L-A-N-N-E-R-T-Y. Then At. Then C-E-R-E-B-U-S dot com. Thanks, I'll see you there in about two hours.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This is a general introduction and gets students to think about their needs for English when they are at work. You may want to open the discussion to the class after they have talked in pairs so that students can hear about difficulties that everyone has as they are likely to be similar (e.g., understanding pronunciation, accents and taking down correct information).

2. Focus on vocabulary

Part A

5 mins.

This looks at some key vocabulary. Although students are likely to already know some of this vocabulary, it allows them to look at how it can be used in a phone call context. Ask them to do the exercise unaided in the first instance, but allow them to use a dictionary later if needed.

1. → f. 2. → a. 3. → c. 4. → h. 5. → e. 6. → d. 7. → g.
8. → b.

Part B

10 mins.

You may want to elicit the different forms of the verbs ahead of completing this (such as the past and past participle forms). You may want to note that "I didn't catch what you said" and "I missed what you said" mean roughly the same thing, but give students more than one way to ask for information to be repeated. The second part puts the same words into a wider context and gives them an opportunity to discuss and practise using the target vocabulary.

1. lost
2. speak
3. catch
4. check
5. put ⟩ through to
6. missed
7. say
8. repeat

Part C

1. speak
2. lost
3. missed
4. say
5. check
6. put ⟩ through to

3. Understanding a conversation

10 mins.

This gives further practice using the target verbs and provides students with some stock phrases which are often used in a business call. Allow them to spend time looking at this and you may want to allow them to work in pairs to complete it.

1. Who would you like to speak to?
2. just a moment
3. thank you for calling
4. Would either of those days suit you?
5. could work for me
6. Any particular time?

7. Shall we say
8. I don't think we have a very good connection.
9. I'll make a note of it
10. I'd be particularly interested to

4. Reading comprehension

5 mins.

This helps students to check that they have understood the conversation. Ask them to underline where they find the answers.

1. False. "...a police car just went past."
2. False. "Hi Helena, Meera Hosani, here. We spoke last Tuesday."
3. True. "I just wanted to check ...which of our products you were particularly interested in?"
4. False. "...Wednesday, I'll be in meetings with my colleagues most of the day."
5. True.
6. True. "I'd be particularly interested to see your range of face creams and soaps."
7. True. "We are looking at increasing our range..."

5. Giving information

10 mins.

This gives students the chance to practice giving and listening to information.

Divide the students into pairs. Give the following information to each student. It is better if they work in pairs but there are three sets of information in case your class size forces you to have a three. Ensure students read the information to each other and don't show each other what they have. You may want to go over how to give an email address and website and practise saying the letters of the alphabet depending on the level of your students. You may also want to review the way numbers are said.

6. Listening for gist

5 mins.

This allows the students to listen and identify the reason for each call before listening more carefully for the specific information.

a. 5 b. 3 c. 2 d. 1 e. 4

7. Taking information

5 mins.

Ask students o write down all of the information asked for. You may want to stop between each speaker to allow students time to complete the information.

8. Extended activity/Homework

20 mins+.

This gives students an opportunity to write down a typical English conversation that they may have with a view to improving what they say. Be sure to give students feedback on their work.

HOW'S IT GOING?

Scan to review worksheet

6.	practical (adj.)	f.	being as good, if not better, than someone else
7.	respect (n)	g.	a feeling of people thinking you are very good at something
8.	successful (adj.)	h.	in a way that works well

Part B: Pronunciation. Underline the stressed syllable for each word.

1. ad/van/tage
2. am/bit/ious
3. com/pet/it/ive
4. e/ffect/ive/ly
5. ex/per/i/enced
6. prac/tic/al
7. re/spect
8. suc/cess/ful

Part C: Add the vocabulary from Part A to the box under the correct prefix.

dis-	im-	un-	in-

Now, complete the following sentences with one of the words. You need to decide if you need to use a prefix or not.

1. He started at our company straight after university, so he was quite _____.
2. The competition's car was cheaper and faster than ours which put us at a _____.
3. Profits had increased by 40% in less than two years after the new CEO started, which earned her a lot of _____ in the company.

7. The new computer they designed got too hot to use after it had been on for more than two hours making it completely _____.
8. My brother is quite _____ and is happy to work in the coffee shop because all his friends work there too.

3 Listening for details

Who uses the words from Part A, Speaker 1 or Speaker 2? Put a tick in the correct box.

Vocabulary	Speaker 1	Speaker 2
a. advantage
b. ambitious
c. competitive
d. effectively
e. experienced
f. practical
g. respect
h. successful

4 Listening comprehension

Listen again and decide if the following statements are true (T) or false (F).

1. The first speaker was the manager on a recent project. _____
2. Jean has been doing her job for a long time. _____
3. Speaker 1 thinks Jean wants to get into senior management. _____
4. The clothes Speaker 2 made this year used a different material from the ones they made last year. _____
5. The clothes they made this year will last the customers for a long time. _____
6. There were a lot of problems with the designers. _____

5 Looking at the negative side

What is the difference between these negative words?

- fail
- trouble
- disappointment
- disaster

Now write them in the correct gaps in the article below.

Project planning

There are three main things to consider at the beginning of any project: time, quality and resources. Often, the people who have the biggest interest in the result of the project will want the project to take a short amount of time, to use few resources and for it to be of the highest quality. However, this is not possible. Only one of these can be the main aim and if you try to make them all of equal importance, you will quickly run into _____[1] and will likely _____[2].

If completing the project by a particular date is essential, then you have to accept that the quality of what you are doing will not be the best. Let's say your company has to produce 500 dresses for summer. They must be in your shops by the 1st March in time for shoppers to buy them. You want them to be made of the finest Egyptian cotton, but discover that no one made an order and it will take four months to arrive. However, there is someone who can supply your order in the time you need, but it's not as good as Egyptian cotton. If they are four months late, your customers will not be buying them. They will already have all of their summer clothes as the season will be almost over. You have to choose the local supplier, even if it is a _____[3]. Time is more important.

Now let's imagine you make computer games. The date of the game's release has been advertised and it will soon be here. Yet, you discover that there are some problems that mean the game doesn't work correctly. If you don't keep to the promised date, it will be a _____[4]. Not only will there be a lot of unhappy customers who will have spent money on a game that doesn't work properly (and will probably want that money back), but you could negatively affect your company's image. You have to take more time and focus on the quality.

However, there are resources that can be used if you have a problem with quality or time. You can use more people to complete a project more quickly, or you can use them to make what you are making a better product. But it's important to remember that more resources will cost more money and there is a limit to how much they can help. Nine women can't make a baby in one month. Your best strategy is good planning at the beginning, and thinking what you will do when things go wrong, because they will. As they say: 'by failing to prepare you are preparing to fail' (Benjamin Franklin)

6 Finding vocabulary

Find vocabulary (in bold) in the article on page four which means the same as the following:

1. _____ the idea that people have about a person or a company (n)
2. _____ a point at which something must stop (n)
3. _____ unable to do a task without (adj.)
4. _____ people, tools or services you need to complete a task (n)
5. _____ give you something you need or want (v)
6. _____ the action of making something available to people (n)
7. _____ the result you want to achieve when you do something (n)
8. _____ understand that something is needed, necessary or true, even if you're not happy about it (v)

7 Reading comprehension

Complete the summary of with one, two or three words from the article on page four.

When starting a project, you must consider _____[1]: time, quality and resources. Management will generally want you to treat all of them with _____[2], but this is not possible and you must decide when you start which of the three is the most _____[3]. If your project must be completing by a certain date, then you must _____[4] time over quality and make decisions based on this. Sometimes, quality is more important and it will be better to complete something late than create _____[5] who will not want to buy your products again and think of your company _____[6]. It's extremely important to focus on the most important one and plan your resources around this. The best way to create a successful project is to make sure that from the start there is _____[7]. Then if _____[8], you will know what to do.

8 Talking point

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. Have you ever worked on a project that was a disappointment or a disaster? What happened?
2. What resources are you using for the work you are doing now?
3. What do you think is the best way to make sure you are working effectively?
4. What advantage do the products or services that your company produces have over the competition?
5. Who do you respect in your company? Why?
6. How do you know when you have been successful at your work?
7. What is essential for you to be able to do your job?
8. What are your personal aims with your career?

9 Extended activity/Homework

Write an email to a friend talking about the work you are doing at the moment.

Consider the following questions.

- What are you working on?
- What is the aim of what you are doing?
- What resources do you need?
- What is most important about the work: quality or time?
- How will you know when you have been successful?
- What can happen to make your work a failure?
- What is it about your product or service that makes it competitive?

You should:

- Write at least 150 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation

Transcripts

3. Listening for details

Speaker 1 : I think the reason why our plan was so successful was that we were lucky enough to have our project manager, Jean. She organised everything and was able to see problems before they happened. She's been doing that job for over ten years now, so she's very experienced. She knows what she needs and she knows how to get the job done. I learned a lot from watching her work and I have a lot of respect for her. I don't think she's very ambitious as, if she was, she would be in senior management by now. I think it's just very important to her that she can do her job well.

Speaker 2: First of all, we found a material to use for the clothes we were making which was a lot cheaper than the material we used for the clothes we made last season. It was also a lot stronger which made it a lot more practical because it could be used for longer. This gave us a real advantage over other companies as it meant the price could be very competitive. We also had a really great team of designers who worked together really effectively. There were no arguments and they completed their work really quickly.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gets students to talk about the work they are doing and allows them to think about that in the context of English.

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This introduces useful vocabulary to the class. Ask students to do Part A unaided in the first instance, but use a reference if needed later. Ensure students understand syllable stress for Part B and allow them to practise different stresses. For Part C, point out that we use prefixes with some words which can alter or make the meaning opposite. Students may need to use a dictionary to complete this section. You may want to ask them to see if the syllable stress changes when the prefix is added. Then ask them to complete the sentences with one of the words with or without a prefix.

1. → c. 2. → b. 3. → f. 4. → h. 5. → a. 6. → e. 7. → g. 8. → d.

Part B

1. ad/van/tage	2. am/bit/ious	3. com/pet/it/ive	4. e/ffect/ive/ly
5. ex/per/i/enced	6. prac/tic/al	7. re/spect	8. suc/cess/ful

Part C

Answers to the table:

dis- advantage, respect; im- practical; un- successful, competitive, ambitious; in- effectively, experienced

1. inexperienced	2. disadvantage	3. respect	4. unsuccessful
5. ineffectively	6. competitive	7. impractical	8. unambitious

3. Listening for details

5 mins.

This reinforces the vocabulary the students have just been looking at and gives them practice listening for details, a useful skill.

Answers:

Speaker 1 → b, e, g; Speaker 2 → a, c, d, f, h

4. Listening comprehension

5 mins.

This ensures students understand the listening. Ask them to complete the task after the first listening and then check their answers with a second listening.

1. False. "... we were lucky enough to have our project manager, Jean."
2. True. "She's been doing that job for over ten years now, so she's very experienced."
3. False. "I don't think she's very ambitious as, if she was, she would be in senior management by now."
4. True. "...we found a material to use for the clothes we were making which was a lot cheaper than the clothes we made last season."
5. True. "It was also a lot stronger which made it a lot more practical because it could be used for longer."
6. False. "There were no arguments and they completed their work really quickly."

5. Looking at the negative side

5 mins.

This gives some additional vocabulary and asks students to discuss the difference.

Fail (v) – to not be successful;

Trouble (n) – a difficulty or problem

Disappointment (n) - a sense of sadness because something that you wanted to happen did not happen

Disaster (n) – a really bad problem, possibly causing damage

1. trouble
2. fail
3. disappointment
4. disaster

6. Finding vocabulary

5 mins.

This gets students to use the article to find further useful vocabulary which they can use to help them understand the article and prepare for the comprehension.

1. image
2. limit
3. essential
4. resources
5. supply
6. release
7. aim
8. accept

7. Reading comprehension

10 mins.

Ask students to complete each gap with one, two or three consecutive words directly from the article.

1. three main things
2. equal importance
3. essential
4. choose
5. unhappy customers
6. negatively
7. good planning
8. things go wrong

8. Talking point

10 mins.

Ask students to discuss the questions which recycle the vocabulary from the lesson.

I HAVE A SUGGESTION

1 Warm up

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. If someone was visiting your country, what would you tell them to do?
2. What do you do if you are travelling to another city or country?

2 Focus on vocabulary

Part A: Match the vocabulary to the definitions.

1.	advise (v)	a.	say something is a good idea or possible
2.	perhaps (adv.)	b.	a strong suggestion about what to do in a situation, often based on experience
3.	recommendation (n)	c.	a strong statement about what you can or cannot do
4.	rule (n)	d.	in a way that shows you think something is a good idea or a good option to choose
5.	suggest (v)	e.	someone's thoughts about something based on ideas and feelings which may not be fact
6.	warn (v)	f.	tell someone what you think is the best thing to do in a situation
7.	opinion (n)	g.	in a way that means you think something is possible or a good idea, but you are not 100% sure
8.	better (adv.)	h.	tell someone that something is dangerous or a bad idea
9.	may as well do something (idiom)	i.	do something because it's an option, but you aren't happy or excited about it

Part B: usage warn/advise/suggest.

In the following sentences, underline the option that is correct.

1. I would suggest that you fly/flying business class as you will be more comfortable.
2. I'd advise you not going/to go into Sophia's office right now. She's very busy.
3. I should warn you against talking/talk about politics during your business trip. It's a very difficult subject.
4. I suggested him/to him that he buys 500 not 1000. But I don't know what he decided to do.
5. Sandra warned to him/him not to open the door because it is broken, but he didn't listen.
6. If you're travelling to Bangkok, I would definitely advise against to wear/wearing a heavy suit. It's very hot there.

Part C: Complete the questions with the vocabulary from Part A. You may have to change the form of the word.

1. In your _____, what is the best way to travel for business?
2. What _____ do you follow when doing business in other countries?
3. What would you _____ to people who want to do business in your country?
4. What would you _____ someone about when doing business in your country so they don't get into trouble?
5. If you are travelling less than 200 miles on business, is it _____ to go by train or car? Why?
6. If someone asked you to _____ them about what to go and see in your country, what would you say?

Now in pairs, answer the questions.

3 Reading for details

Complete the emails with the vocabulary from Part A. You may have to change the form of the word.

Email A

Hi Andrew,

I just wanted to say that when you're booking our hotel for Bangkok, you would do _____[1] to get one in the Sukhumvit area. All of our clients are around there and it will be easier to get to see them. There is a lot of traffic in Bangkok, so we don't want to have to spend a lot of time in taxis. We _____[2] stay in a business hotel. Even if it's more expensive. It will mean there are places to work and we will be able to get a good breakfast in the morning before we start the day. It's a relaxed place to do business and there aren't really any _____[3] I can give you. However, I would dress in a formal style if I were you. It's not a good idea to look like a tourist.

Happy to meet if you want to discuss anything.

Claire

Email B

Hi Sylvia,

Just checking in with you ahead of our trip to Boston next week. It would be my _____[1] that we fly out on Saturday so that we have Sunday to prepare for the week. We will both be really tired because of the time difference, so that will help us rest before we have to do business. _____[2] we should rent a car so we can drive to see our clients, rather than take taxis? It will be cheaper and it will mean we can drive to this great beach I know in New Hampshire on the second weekend. There's a great restaurant there with fantastic fish dishes. In my _____[3], driving around Boston is a lot easier than driving in New York City. I'm happy to drive if you're not comfortable with it.

Let me know what you think.

Ruth

Email C

Hi Darren,

I just wanted to check you're ready for your trip to the Middle East. I know it's your first time going there. I would _____[1] you to take a light suit with you and several shirts and ties. It's cool inside, but there will be times when you have to go outside and you will get really hot, really quickly. I would _____[2] taking some small gifts for our clients out there. It will really help. Some chocolates or sweets are a good idea as long as you keep them cool. I have to _____[3] you though, don't take alcohol. It's not a good gift there and it might even get you into trouble. If you get the opportunity to go out into the desert, take it. Many of our clients have farms out there. The sky at night is amazing away from the light. There are so many stars.

Best of luck,

Anwar

4 Reading comprehension

Read the following statements about the emails and decide if they are true (T) or false (F).

1. Claire thinks it is a good idea for Andrew to stay in the Sukhamvit area of Bangkok. _____
2. Claire suggests the cheapest hotel to stay in. _____
3. Ruth thinks that she and Sylvia should travel on Sunday. _____
4. Ruth thinks that it will be cheaper to take taxis when they are there. _____
5. Anwar thinks Darren will be too hot all the time on his trip. _____
6. Anwar makes a suggestion about a good place for Darren to visit. _____

5 Making suggestions

Complete the phrases used in the emails.

1. Perhaps we _____ rent a car?
2. If you get the _____ to go out into the desert, _____ it.
3. It would _____ my recommendation that we fly out on Saturday
4. I would dress in a formal style if I _____ you.
5. It's not a _____ to look like a tourist.
6. I _____ advise you to take a light suit with you
7. I _____ warn you though, don't take alcohol.

Now use the vocabulary from the phrases to write down four suggestions of what to do in your country if you go there on business.

. . . . . .

. . . . . .

6 Suggestions and rules

Part A: Read the following sentences. In the box next to each one, write either (R) for rule or (S) for suggestion.

1. ☐ Why don't you travel earlier and give yourself time to rest before the presentation?
2. ☐ If I were you, I would just take one bag with you so you don't have to carry too much.
3. ☐ You have to take your passport with you when you travel to a foreign country.
4. ☐ You could travel by train, it will be quicker.
5. ☐ You ought to take a gift for the clients you are going to meet.
6. ☐ You must follow the laws of the country you are visiting.
7. ☐ You can hire a car at the airport when you arrive.

Part B: Now find the mistakes in the following sentences and correct them.

1. You ought to booking travel early to get the best price.

2. You haven't to take warm clothes to the Middle East.

3. Why you don't visit the zoo while you are there?

4. You mustn't use a seatbelt when you're in a car.

5. You can used your company credit card while you are on the trip.

6. If I weren't you, I wouldn't take any alcohol on the plane.

Part C: Rewrite the sentences using the word in brackets so that it means the same thing.

1. I would check that your passport is up to date before flying if I were you. (ought to)

2. You should make sure you take two suits with you on your trip. (would)

3. Why don't you visit the Eiffel Tower while you're in Paris? (could)

4. I wouldn't take any warm clothes if I were you. It will be too hot there. (have)

5. You have to check you have your passport before you leave for the airport. (must)

6. You can borrow my suitcase for your trip if you want. (don't)

7 Talking point

In pairs, discuss the following questions.

1. Do you often make suggestions at work? What you do normally make suggestions about?
2. What rules do you have in your company?
3. Where have you travelled for business? What was your opinion of the places you visited?
4. Have you ever had to warn someone about something at work?

8 Extended activity/Homework

Think back to the question in the Warm up about what you would tell someone who was visiting your country on business. Write an email to a friend or colleague who is visiting your country for the first time. Make suggestions, give advice and warn them about any problems they could have.

You should:

- Write at least 150 words
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gives students a chance to consider giving advice and suggestions without looking specifically at the vocabulary yet. This theme will be returned to in the extended activity at the end of the lesson giving students a chance to use the vocabulary and structures they have used in the lesson to improve their answers.

2. Focus on vocabulary

20 mins.

Part A

This presents some key vocabulary that students will encounter in the reading exercise. Ask them to do Part A unaided, but allow them to use a reference later if needed. Part B looks at the grammatical usage of some of the key verbs they have used which often presents problems for learners with a focus on accuracy. They then complete questions with some of the vocabulary which they then can discuss. Circulate and help as needed.

1. → f. 2. → g. 3. → b. 4. → c. 5. → a. 6. → h. 7. → e. 8. → d. 9. → i.

(you would do better to ... better left unsaid)

Part B

1. fly	2. to go	3. talking
4. to him	5. him	6. wearing

Part C

1. opinion	2. rules	3. suggest
4. warn	5. better	6. advise

3. Reading for details

5 mins.

This recycles the vocabulary they have been looking at and gives them a chance to look at the content of the emails ahead of the comprehension.

Email A

1. better	2. may as well	3. rules

Email B

1. recommendation	2. Perhaps	3. opinion

Email C

1. advise
2. suggest
3. warn

4. Reading comprehension

5 mins.

This checks that students have understood key areas of the emails. Ask them to underline where they find the answer.

1. True. '... you would do better to get one in the Sukhumvit area.'
2. False. 'We may as well stay in a business hotel. Even if it's more expensive.'
3. False. 'It would be my recommendation that we fly out on Saturday so that we have Sunday to prepare for the week.'
4. False. 'Perhaps we should rent a car so we can drive to see our clients, rather than take taxis? It will be cheaper...'
5. False. 'It's cool inside, but there will be times when you have to go outside and you will get really hot, really quickly.'
6. True. 'If you get the opportunity to go out into the desert, take it. ...The sky at night is amazing away from the light.'

5. Making suggestions

5 mins.

This returns to the emails for useful phrases for making suggestions and then asks students to use those phrases to personalise them.

1. should
2. opportunity ≀ take
3. be
4. were
5. good idea
6. would
7. have to

6. Suggestions and rules

10 mins.

Part A

This builds on the work done on suggestions by looking at some modal verbs and structures for suggestions and rules. This assumes students have encountered these modal verbs previously and provides further practice with a focus on accuracy. You may want to make sure students understand that 'have to' and 'must' are used for rules and insistent suggestions whereas the other verbs and structures can be followed or not.

Answers:

Rules → 3, 5, 6; Suggestions → 1, 2, 4, 7

Part B

1. You ought to book...
2. You don't have to ...
3. Why don't you visit ...
4. You must use a seatbelt ...
5. You can use your company credit card...
6. If I were you, I wouldn't take ...

Part C

1. You ought to check your passport is up to date before flying.
2. If I were you, I would take two suits with you on your trip.
3. You could visit the Eiffel Tower while you're in Paris.
4. You don't have to take any warm clothes. It will be too hot there.
5. You must check you have your passport before you leave for the airport.
6. Why don't you borrow my suitcase for the trip?

7. Talking point

10 mins.

Ask students to discuss the questions in pairs or small groups. Circulate and hep as needed.

8. Extended activity/Homework

30 mins.

This gives students an opportunity to return to the ideas they had at the beginning of the lesson and use the vocabulary and structures they have learned in the class to improve their suggestions, advice and warnings. Ask them to plan, write and edit their emails. Be sure to give them feedback on their work.

4. Why do they arrange another meeting?
   a. to discuss the details b. to negotiate a better price c. to reach a compromise

5 Useful expressions

Complete the dialogue with the expressions below.

How does that sound?	... is very low
it's a deal	I was thinking of that sounds good to me	to be honest, I think ... is too high
What do you think about that?	What price did you have in mind?

Steven: Hi Costas. Good to talk to you again. Have you thought about what we spoke about?

Costas: Yes, I have and _____ €99 _____[1]. I've been a loyal client of yours for over a year now. We have at least three or four sessions a month.

Steven: I totally understand, Costas, but remember that I will have to do a lot of extra research in order to give you the most professional advice for your project. And that takes time.

Costas: I understand, but let's talk about this.

Steven: _____[2]

Costas: _____[3] €50 an hour, and if we increase our sales in the first year because of your advice then we could offer you a 20% commission. _____[4]

Steven: Hmm...€50 _____[5]. And we usually don't agree to commissions.

Costas: But you told us that our business has a lot of potential.

Steven: Yes, that's right, but we prefer to concentrate on helping your business grow, on long-term planning, not short-term profit. And we like to keep our relationship clear. We are your consultants, not your business partners.

Costas: I see.

Steven: But maybe we can compromise ... if you agree to pay us €80 an hour and let's say offer us 15% commission. _____[6]

Costas: 15% ... for the first year?

Steven: Yes.

Costas: Hmm...yes, _____[7].

Steven: Great, _____[8]. But we will need to decide how you're going to report your sales figures to us.

Costas: Yes, of course. Let's arrange a meeting to discuss the details.

On the next page, put the expressions into the correct categories.

Making an offer: I was thinking of ...

Accepting an offer: _____

Rejecting an offer: _____

Asking for an opinion: _____

_____

Asking someone to make an offer: _____

Closing a deal: _____

6 Role play

Work in pairs. Imagine you are buying and selling grapes for making wine or juice. Practise the following simple negotiations with your partner, taking turns to be buyer and seller. Try to reach a compromise and close the deal.

Negotiation 1	Buyer wants...	Seller wants...
Price/kg	€6 (25% discount)	€8
Delivery time	20 days	30 days
Minimum order	50 kilos	100 kilos

Negotiation 2	Buyer wants...	Seller wants...
Price/kg	€5.40 (10% discount)	€6
Delivery time	15 days	30 days
Minimum order	100 kilos	200 kilos

Job interview

a. _____? I would be very happy to work here because I really respect the work that this company does and I have always had a positive opinion of it. I believe that with the skills that I have learned over the past six years in this industry, I would be an excellent person to have on the team.

b. _____? When I started, I worked as a sales rep for two years and learned a lot during that time and went on a lot of training courses. After two years, I was promoted and became an area manager with a small team of two other people. I did that for three years, before moving to the job I do now. I currently manage a different area with a larger team of five people and since I have been there, our sales have increased by 25%.

c. _____? I have been with this company for six years now and I would like to have experience with a new company and I'm looking for a new challenge. Also, I have a new manager who started a couple of months ago and I don't really get on with him. He's pretty stupid.

d. _____? I'm a hard worker and enjoy learning new skills. I really love working in sales and don't have a problem with working as long as I need to reach my goals. I'm good working as part of a team, but I'm happy to work by myself too.

e. _____? Selling ice cream on a beach! Sun, ice cream and sales: my three favourite things.

f. _____? One of my biggest strengths is listening to customers to find out what they need and building relationships with them.

g. _____? First, I decide what are the most important tasks to deal with and I do those first. If I've got a lot to do, I will get up extra early and get a head start.

h. _____? I enjoy cycling and usually go for a ride at the weekend if I have time. I'm also learning Spanish at the moment. I go to an evening class once a week. I'm still a beginner, but I'm learning a lot quite quickly. I also really enjoy meeting my friends and going out for dinner with them.

Now listen to the job interview to check your answers.

5 Finding vocabulary

Find vocabulary in the interview which means the same as the following.

1. _____ have a good opinion of (v, para. A)
2. _____ a person who sells products or services for a company (n, para. B)
3. _____ be given a job of a higher level than the one you are in (v, para. B)
4. _____ at the moment (adv., para. B)

7. _____ something which you are good at (n, para. F)
8. _____ a situation when you begin something early to make completing it easier (n, para. G)

6 Talking point

Part A: In pairs, discuss the answers in the job interview which you read. Were they good answers or not? Why?

Part B: Now practise asking and answering the same questions with your partner. Take it in turns for one person to be the interviewer and one person to be the candidate. Then swap roles.

7 Extended activity/Homework

Write a cover letter for a job above yours. Consider the following questions:

- How would you describe yourself?
- Why do you want to do the job?
- What experience do you have?
- What have you achieved in your work life?

You should:

- Write at least 150 words.
- Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation.

Key

1. Warm up

5 mins.

This gets students thinking about their experience ahead of the lesson. You may want to discuss this as a class after students have discussed it to talk about shared difficulties and how to overcome them.

2. Focus on vocabulary

15 mins.

Part A

This looks at relevant vocabulary and how word stress can change with different forms. Students will use the vocabulary in context. Ask them to complete Part A unaided in the first instance, but allow them to use a dictionary if needed later.

Note: You may want to elicit or explain the meaning of Public Relations which is the way in which different organisations interact with the general public and the view that is held of them.

1. → c. 2. → d. 3. → b. 4. → g. 5. → e. 6. → a. 7. → h. 8. → f.

Part B

1. app/li/cant - app/li/ca/tion
2. qual/i/fi/ca/tion - qual/i/fy
3. qual/i/fied - un/qual/i/fied
4. ad/ver/tise/ment - ad/ver/tise
5. can/di/date - can/di/da/cy
6. ex/per/i/ence - in/ex/per/i/ence

Part C

1. ad
2. application
3. qualified
4. hire
5. candidates
6. work experience
7. CV
8. qualification

3. Should/Shouldn't

10 mins.

This reinforces the use of should and gets students to connect it to interview etiquette.

Part A

1. You should plan your trip to the interview to make sure you're not late.
2. You should read the job description before you apply.
3. Companies should check you can come to the interview.
4. You shouldn't eat smelly food just before the interview.
5. You shouldn't sit down before you are invited to do so.
6. You should prepare references before the interview.

Part B

1. You should arrive on time.
2. You should prepare questions before the interview.
3. You shouldn't eat sweets in the interview.
4. You shouldn't drink a lot of coffee before the interview.
5. You should wear professional clothes

6. You shouldn't talk for too long when answering questions
7. You should listen carefully to the questions.
8. You should ask them to repeat the question if needed.
9. You should research the company
10. You should practise answering questions

4. Ordering questions

10 mins.

This asks students to think about the grammar of question formation before asking them to use them with the interview. Later students will have a chance to answer these questions themselves.

1. How do you deal with a large amount of work?
2. Why are you looking for work?
3. What is your dream job?
4. Why do you want to do this job?
5. What are your hobbies?
6. How would you describe yourself?
7. What are your strengths?
8. What experience do you have?

Answers to the job interview:

a. Why do you want to do this job
b. What experience do you have
c. Why are you looking for work
d. How would you describe yourself
e. What is your dream job
f. What are you good at
g. How do you deal with a large amount of work
h. What are your hobbies

5. Finding vocabulary

5 mins.

This uses the interview to highlight more useful vocabulary. Ensure students can correctly pronounce target vocabulary.

1. respect
2. sales rep
3. promote
4. currently
5. challenge
6. get on with
7. strength
8. head start

6. Talking point

15 mins.

Ask students to discuss the quality of the answers to begin with and say if they are good answers and if not, why not. Then ask students to do a mock interview in pairs or threes. Circulate and help as needed.

a. A good answer. It connects the persons experience to the reputation of the company and puts both in a positive light.

b. A good answer. It is short, but quickly gives a lot of information about what the person has done and gives a quick example of what they have achieved.

c. The first part of the answer is good. But it is a bad idea to say negative things about people you are working with. It's not professional and can make you look bad, even if what you are saying is true.

d. A good answer. It covers the strengths of working with others and alone, both of which are likely.

e. Not a good answer. It doesn't sound very professional even if it is a nice dream. It doesn't sound very ambitious either.

f. This is a good answer as it focuses on something which would be important to the company.

g. A good answer because it shows self-awareness and the ability to self-manage.

h. A good answer as it shows the person is active, is still actively learning something (which could be good for the company as it requires communication) and it shows the person has a social life which is a good sign.

7. Extended activity/Homework

20 mins+.

This gives students a chance to use some of what they have been doing in the lesson to write a mock cover letter. Even if they are not planning to apply for a job, this is a good exercise. Be sure to give them feedback on their work.

THE INDEPENDENT

Google employees who work, eat - and sleep - at the California campus.

Adapted from The Independent, by Antonia Molloy, 10 September 2014

When it comes to the perks of the job, Google is certainly one of the best companies to work for. Employees can enjoy gym facilities, a hairdresser and the services of a campus doctor. And some workers don't leave for weeks because the benefits are so good.

According to a discussion on the website Quora, it is normal for Google employees to temporarily live at the business' headquarters, and one man lived there for two to three years.

One Quora user posted: "There was one guy who had a camper parked in the parking lot. He slept in the camper and did everything else in the office.

"The guy lived in the camper for 2-3 years. He took showers at the gym. He did his laundry on campus. He ate all his meals on campus. After 2-3 years, he saved up enough money to buy a house. It was simply brilliant!"

Technically, Google employees are not allowed to live at the office, but it seems that there are ways of getting around the rule.

Former Google employee Brandon Oxendine said that he lived on campus for three months in 2012. He slept on a mattress in the back of his car. And his car had blacked-out windows so nobody could see inside.

Ben Discoe said that he lived on campus for 13 months between 2012 and 2013, and Google's security didn't do anything.

"Google Security looked at my white van, but they decided that I was just an eccentric Google employee, and they never came again."

It is unclear how many people have copied the lifestyle of Oxendine and Discoe. However, one anonymous user wrote this week: "I've been living on the Google campus since December 2011. I still live and work there today."

3. Problems and solutions

Marianne: Steven, I think the printer isn't working.

Steven: What exactly is the problem?

Marianne: Well, I'm trying to print a document. But nothing happens.

Steven: Try to restart the printer.

Marianne: How do I do that?

Steven: Just switch it off, wait five seconds, and switch it on again.

Marianne: OK, let me try .... still nothing.

Steven: OK, can you cancel the print task on your computer?

Marianne: Sure, let me try that ... OK, what now?

Steven: Try to print the document again.

Marianne: OK .... great, it worked! ... hang on ... it's really hard to read.

Steven: So, you need to change the ink cartridge. I think there's an extra cartridge under the printer.

Marianne: OK, I see it.

Steven: OK. Open the printer and press the red button to release the old cartridge.

Marianne: OK, done that.

Steven: Now put in the new cartridge and try to print the document again.

Marianne: OK, just a second ... Great. It looks fine now.

Steven: Good.

Marianne: Thanks, bye.
